History. Original Rule entitled "Tangible Property Classifications ' County Tax Digests" adopted. F. Nov. 8,
560-11-2-.56 Review of County Tax Digest by the State Revenue Commissioner.

(1) General.
(a) County boards of tax assessors are required by the State Constitution and state law to continuously maintain assessments of property that are reasonably uniform and that are based on fair market value as defined in § 48-5-2 (except as otherwise stated in § 48-5-6 and § 48-5-7(c.3)). The Department is required by law to periodically review the county digests to determine if the digests are in compliance with such laws.
(b) This Regulation imposes no additional requirements on the county boards of tax assessors. It merely sets forth the statistical and other methods that are used by the Department in making its determination. The Department does not determine when to revalue property. Each county board of tax assessors determines for itself when it believes a revaluation of property is necessary for legal compliance. Failure to revalue property shall not in and of itself be a basis for assessment of any penalty.
(c) Any digest submitted shall be reviewed utilizing information established by the State Auditor to determine whether or not the county tax digest is in accordance with the uniformity requirements of § 48-5-343.

(2) Review of County Tax Digest by the State Revenue Commissioner.
(a) County Notification: In the event a county fails to meet the standards set forth in paragraphs (c) through (k) of subparagraph (2) of this Regulation, the Commissioner shall immediately notify the county. The notification shall include the findings of the State Auditor regarding assessment bias and assessment ratio, and any additional information the Commissioner believes would be of assistance to the county board of tax assessors to establish uniform values.
(b) Property Classes: For purposes of this regulation the real and personal property of each county shall be classified into five classes of property:
1. Residential (including Residential Transitional and Historic);
2. Agricultural (including Preferential, Conservation Use, Environmentally Sensitive)
3. Commercial;
4. Industrial; (including Brownfield)
5. Utility.
(c) Average Level of Assessment: The Commissioner shall maintain uniformity among the classes of property by setting standards for the average level of assessment for each.
(d) Standard For Level of Assessment: The standard for level of assessment for all classes of property will be in compliance with the Code if the upper limit of a ninety-five percent confidence interval about the average level of assessment, as established by the State Auditor, is equal to or greater than thirty-six percent, or the lower limit of a ninety-five percent confidence interval about the average level of assessment as established by the State Auditor, is less than forty-four percent.
(e) Uniformity Within a Class of Property: The average assessment variance for each class of property shall be ensured by the coefficient of dispersion of the sample for each class, as established by the State Auditor.
(f) Standard for Uniformity: The standard for uniformity will be deemed to have been met if the resulting coefficient does not exceed fifteen percent for the residential class of property or twenty percent for the non-residential classes of property.
(g) Residential Class of Property: If the State Auditor adds non-residential observations to the residential sample to determine statistics applicable to the residential class of property, the standard of uniformity for the residential class of property shall be the same as for the non-residential classes of property.
(h) Assessment Bias: The level of assessment bias within each class of property shall be measured by the price-related differential as established by the State Auditor. It shall be deemed to be in compliance if the resulting price-related differential is in the range of 0.95 to 1.10, inclusive.

(i) Magnitude of Deficiency: If a class of property constitutes ten percent or less of the assessed value of the total digest, and does not meet the uniformity requirements the Commissioner may approve the digest if, in his judgment, the approval will not substantially violate the concept of uniformity and equalization.

(j) Overall Average Assessment: The overall average assessment ratio for the county shall be the weighted mean of the average level of assessment of the classes of property as established by the State Auditor.

(k) Deviation of Overall Average Assessment: If the overall average assessment ratio is less than thirty-six percent, the digest shall be deemed to deviate substantially from the proper assessment ratio. The Commissioner shall assess against the county governing authority additional state tax in an amount equal to the difference between the amount the state's levy of one-quarter mill would have produced if the digest had been at the proper assessment ratio, and the amount the digest actually used for collection purposes would produce.

(3) Digest Review by Department.

(a) County boards of tax assessors are required by the State Constitution and state law to continuously maintain assessments of property that are reasonably uniform and that are based on fair market value. The Department is required by law to periodically review the county digests to determine if the digests are in compliance with such laws.

(b) The Department does not determine when to revalue property. Each county board of tax assessors determines for itself when all classes of property should be valued in accordance with § 48-5-299(a). This regulation imposes no additional requirements on the county boards of tax assessors. The Department’s digest review cycle is only established to validate that counties are meeting the 40% of fair market value requirement of § 48-5-7, and no particular period or schedule of revaluations is required of the counties by the Department for approval of a county digest. Failure to revalue property shall not in and of itself be a basis for assessment of any penalty.

(c) The digest review cycle for each county commencing January 1, 2008, shall be as follows:

1. January 1, 2010 and every third January 1 thereafter for the following counties: Atkinson, Bacon, Baker, Baldwin, Barrow, Bibb, Bulloch, Carroll, Chattahoochee, Cherokee, Clarke, Clinch, Coffee, Dougherty, Emanuel, Fannin, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gilmer, Glascock, Glynn, Gordon, Greene, Hall, Haralson, Irwin, Jasper, Jenkins, Johnson, Lumpkin, McIntosh, Meriwether, Murray, Muscogee, Newton, Oglethorpe, Paulding, Peach, Pickens, Pike, Putnam, Randolph, Screven, Stewart, Sumter, Tattnall, Tift, Toombs, Turner, Twiggs, Union and Wheeler.

(4) If all three of the following circumstances exist, the Commissioner may require the county tax receiver or tax commissioner to submit the digest being used for the collection of taxes. That digest may be reviewed by the Commissioner to determine if the valuations are reasonably uniform and equalized between and within counties and to determine if any grants should be withheld or any specific penalty assessed:

(a) The county tax receiver or tax commissioner has failed to submit the digest by the due date and has exhausted any extensions of the due date granted by the Commissioner;

(b) The county governing authority has successfully petitioned the superior court under § 48-5-310 to authorize the temporary collection of taxes on the basis of a temporary digest; and

(c) The property under appeal or subject to appeal is less than the maximum allowable under § 48-5-304(a).

O.C.G.A. Secs. 48-2-1, 48-2-7, 48-2-12, 48-5-274, 48-5-340, to 48-5-349.5.

Chapter 7 TAX INCREASES

560-11-2-.58 Rollback of Millage Rate When Digest Value Increased by Reassessments.

(1) Purpose and scope. This Rule has been adopted by the Commissioner pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-2-12, and O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 to provide specific procedures applicable to the certification of assessed taxable value of property to the appropriate authorities, computation of a rollback millage rate, and under certain circumstances, advertising the intent to increase property tax and holding required public hearings.

(2) Definitions. For the purposes of implementing this Rule, the following terms are defined to mean:
(a) "Certified tax digest" shall mean the total taxable net assessed value on the annual tax digest that has been or will be certified by the tax receiver or tax commissioner to the Department of Revenue.
(b) "Levying authority" shall mean a county, a municipality, or a consolidated city-county governing authority or other governing authority of a political subdivision of this state that exercises the power to levy property taxes to carry out the governing authority's purposes.
(c) "Mill" shall mean one one-thousandth of a United States dollar.
(d) "Millage rate" shall mean the net ad valorem tax levy, in mills, that is established by the recommending or levying authority to be applied to the net assessed value of taxable property within such authority's taxing jurisdiction for purposes of financing, in whole or in part, the recommending or levying authority's maintenance and operating expenses.
(e) "Millage equivalent" shall mean the number of mills that would result when the total net assessed value added to or deducted by reassessments of existing real property from the prior tax year's assessed value is divided by the certified tax digest for the current tax year and the result is multiplied by the prior tax year's millage rate.
(f) "Net assessed value" shall mean the taxable assessed value of property after all exemptions have been deducted.
(g) "Property tax" shall mean a tax imposed by applying a millage rate that has been established by a recommending or levying authority to the net assessed value of real property subject to ad valorem taxation within a taxing jurisdiction.
(h) "Recommending authority" shall mean a county, independent, or area school board of education that exercises the power to cause the levying authority to levy property taxes to carry out the purposes of such board of education.
(i) "Rollback rate" shall mean the previous year's millage rate plus or minus the millage equivalent of the total net assessed value added to or deducted by reassessments of existing real property.
1. The rollback rate shall be calculated for the county governing authority and county school board by the county tax commissioner.
2. The rollback rate shall be calculated for the municipal governing authority and independent municipal school by the municipal tax collector.
(j) "Taxing jurisdiction" shall mean all the real property within a county or municipality, subject to the levy of a specific levying authority or the recommended levy of a specific recommending authority.
(k) "Total net assessed value added by reassessments of existing real property" shall mean the total net assessed value added to or deducted from the certified tax digest as a result of revaluation by the board of tax assessors of existing real property that has not been improved since the previous tax digest year. Total net assessed value added to or deducted from reassessments of existing real property shall not include net assessment changes that result from zoning changes or net assessment changes relative to classification or decategorization of real property for conservation or preferential agricultural use or for historic preservation purposes.
(3) Calculation of rollback rate. The rollback rate shall be determined in the manner provided in this paragraph.

(a) Estimating the certified tax digest. The recommending or levying authority may utilize an estimate of the certified tax digest to facilitate the establishment of a millage rate earlier in the year; however, the accuracy requirements of paragraph (5)(b) of this Rule must still be met before the actual certified tax digest is presented to the Commissioner for approval.

(b) Certification of digest to recommending and levying authorities. As soon as the total net assessed value of the certified tax digest can be accurately estimated or determined, the tax receiver or tax commissioner shall certify to the recommending and levying authorities of each taxing jurisdiction the total net assessed value of all taxable property within each respective taxing jurisdiction. Such certification shall separately show the total net assessed value added to or deducted by reassessments of existing real property and the total net assessed value of all remaining taxable property.

(c) Determination of rollback rate. Based on the total net assessed value of the actual or estimated certified tax digest for the current year and the actual certified tax digest and millage rate for the previous year, the levying authority or recommending authority shall determine the rollback rate with the assistance of the tax receiver or tax commissioner. The rollback rate shall be calculated using Form PT-32.1 as provided by the Department and in the manner defined in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (2) of this Rule.

(4) Advertisement of rollback rate, press release and public hearing. The procedures for the advertising of the rollback rate, issuing the required press release and holding public hearings shall be as provided in this paragraph.

(a) Procedure when rollback rate not exceeded. Whenever a recommending or levying authority proposes to adopt a millage rate that does not exceed the rollback rate calculated as defined in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (2) of this Rule, such authority shall adopt the millage rate at an advertised public meeting and at a time and place which is convenient to the taxpayers of the taxing jurisdiction, in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.

(b) Procedure when rollback rate is exceeded. Whenever a recommending or levying authority proposes to establish a general maintenance and operation millage rate that would require increases beyond the rollback rate calculated in subparagraph (i) of paragraph (2) of this Rule, such authority shall advertise its intent to do so and conduct at least three public hearings in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 and this subparagraph.

1. Schedule of public hearings. The recommending or levying authority shall schedule the public hearings required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 at convenient times and places to afford the public an opportunity to respond to the notice of property tax increase and make their opinions on the increase known to such authority. The scheduling shall conform to the following requirements:

(i) Convenient public hearings. Two of the three public hearings required by this paragraph shall be held at times and places that are convenient to the public and at least five business days apart. One of the three public hearings required by this paragraph shall begin between 6 PM and 7 PM, inclusive, on a business weekday. Such public hearing may be held on a day in which another public hearing under this Rule also is scheduled, but only if such other hearing is to begin no later than 12:00 noon.

(ii) Combination with other public hearings. A public hearing required by this paragraph may be combined with the public hearing required by O.C.G.A. § 36-81-5(f) to be held at least one week prior to the meeting of the governing authority at which adoption of the budget ordinance or resolution will be considered. Additionally, a public hearing required by this paragraph may be combined with the meeting at which the levying or recommending authority will be setting a millage rate that must be advertised in accordance with the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.

(iii) Timing of public hearings. All public hearings required by this paragraph shall be held before the millage rate is finally established.
2. Advertisement of public hearings. The recommending or levying authority shall advertise the public hearings required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 in a manner that affords the public a timely notice of the time and place where the public hearings on the intention of such authority to increase taxes will be held. The advertisements shall conform to the following requirements:

(i) Location of advertisement. Each advertisement for a public hearing required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 shall be prominently displayed in a newspaper of general circulation serving the residents of the unit of local government placing the advertisement and shall not appear in the section of the newspaper where legal notices appear. The recommending authority or levying authority shall post such advertisement on its website at least one week prior to each hearing.

(ii) Size of Advertisement. Each published advertisement required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 must be 30 square inches or larger.

(iii) Frequency of advertisement. Each advertisement for a public hearing required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 shall be published on a date that precedes the date of such public hearing by at least one week. Each advertisement shall be at least five business days apart, however, when two public hearings required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 have been scheduled on the same day in accordance with subparagraph (4)(b)(1)(i) of this Rule, both hearings may be advertised in the same day's edition of the newspaper provided they are combined in such a manner that makes it clear to the public that two separate hearings on the same subject matter are being held.

(iv) Combining with other advertisements. The advertisements required by this subparagraph may be combined with the advertisements required by O.C.G.A. § 36-81-5(e) and O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32(b), provided the notice required to be published by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 precedes and appears at the top of the report required to be published by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.

(v) Form of advertisement. The advertisements required by this Rule shall read exactly as provided by this Rule and not be reworded in any manner, with the exception that a brief reason or explanation for the tax increase may be included. The advertisements required of this Rule shall read as follows, with the heading that reads "NOTICE OF PROPERTY TAX INCREASE" appearing in all upper case and in either a bold font or a font size that is larger than the remaining body of the notice:

NOTICE OF PROPERTY TAX INCREASE

The (name of recommending authority or levying authority) has tentatively adopted a millage rate which will require an increase in property taxes by (percentage increase over rollback rate) percent.

All concerned citizens are invited to the public hearing on this tax increase to be held at (place of meeting) on (date and time).

Times and places of additional public hearings on this tax increase are at (place of meeting) on (date and time).

This tentative increase will result in a millage rate of (proposed millage rate) mills, an increase of (millage rate increase above the roll-back rate) mills. Without this tentative tax increase, the millage rate will be no more than (roll-back millage rate) mills. The proposed tax increase for a home with a fair market value of (average home value from previous year's digest rounded to the nearest $25,000) is approximately (increase) and the proposed tax increase for nonhomestead property with a fair market value of (average nonhomestead property value from previous year's digest rounded to nearest $25,000) is approximately (increase).

(vi) Determination of average dollar increase. The proposed tax increase for an average home shall be calculated by multiplying the millage rate increase above the rollback rate times the average current year taxable value for properties which are granted homestead exemption. The proposed tax increase for an average nonhomestead property shall be calculated by multiplying the millage rate increase above the rollback rate times the average current year taxable value for real property which has not been granted homestead exemption.

(vii) Determination of percentage increase. The "percentage increase over rollback rate" number that appears in the advertisements required by this subparagraph shall be determined by subtracting or adding the rollback rate from the proposed millage rate, dividing this difference by the rollback rate and expressing the results as a percentage.

(viii) Press release. At the same time the first advertisement is made in accordance with this Rule, the recommending or levying authority shall also provide a press release to the local media that announces such authority's intention to seek an increase in property taxes and the dates, times, and locations of the public hearings thereon. The press release may contain such other information as the recommending or levying authority deems may help the public understand the necessity for and purpose of the hearings.

(5) Certification to Commissioner to accompany digest. Upon the submission by the tax receiver or tax commissioner of the tax digest and accompanying certifications, the Commissioner will make a determination of whether the recommending and levying authorities have complied with the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 and this Rule before issuing an authorization to collect taxes pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-345.

(a) Evidence of compliance. The Commissioner shall not accept for review or issue an order authorizing the collection of taxes for any certified tax digest from any county tax receiver or tax commissioner that does not simultaneously submit evidence that the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 and this Rule have been met. Such evidence shall include Form PT-32.1 showing the calculation of the rollback rate, the actual millage rate established, a statement from the chairman of the board of tax assessors attesting to the total net assessed value added by the reassessment of existing real property, a statement from the tax collector or tax commissioner attesting to the accuracy of the digest information appearing on the form, and a statement from a responsible authority attesting to the fact that the hearings were actually held in accordance with such published advertisements. When the actual millage rate exceeds the rollback rate, such evidence shall also include copies of the published "Notice of Property Tax Increase" showing the times and places when and where the required public hearings were held and a copy of the required press release provided to the local media. A copy of the web-based publication of the Notice of Tax Increase advertisement must be certified by the respective governing or recommending authority establishing such tax increase.

(b) Incorrectly determined rollback rate. When the Commissioner determines that the recommending or levying authority has incorrectly determined the rollback rate and has established a millage rate that is in excess of the correct rollback rate and failed to advertise a notice of tax increase and held the required public hearings or has advertised a percentage tax increase that is less than the actual tax increase, the Commissioner shall not accept the digest for review or issue an Order authorizing the collection of taxes, except in that instance when such incorrect rollback rate overestimates the taxes that may be levied without the required public hearings by less than 3 percent, in which case the digest may be accepted for review if all other digest submission requirements have otherwise been met.

(c) Reductions to advertised millage rates. When the recommending authority or levying authority adopts a final millage rate below the rate that has been the subject of the hearings required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1, such authority shall not be required to begin anew the procedures and hearings required by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-32.1 and this Rule.

Contracts submitted as a basis for State financial assistance or for a commercial loan must contain a specific time for commencement and for completion of the work under the contract. The actual time limits set by such contracts will be approved on an individual basis by the Commissioner of Revenue based upon the size of the county, extent of work to be done under the contract, availability of professional appraisal personnel, financial condition of the county, and other reasonable and pertinent circumstances.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on June 30, 1965.

560-11-2-.07 Approved Appraisal Firms.

No appraisal contracts will be considered except those with qualified professional firms which have received prior approval of the State Revenue Commissioner. A current list of approved appraisal firms will be maintained by the State Revenue Commissioner and will be available to the counties upon request.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on June 30, 1965.

560-11-2-.08 Listing of Approved Appraisal Firms.

The list of approved firms will be maintained by the State Revenue Commissioner in the following manner: (1) Approval by the State Revenue Commissioner to bid on property tax valuation and equalization programs will be obtained in the first instance by formal application to the State Revenue Commissioner, stating fully the qualifications of the appraisal firm to satisfactorily complete a county-wide property appraisal program. The requirements set out in Section 560-11-2-.04 (3) and Paragraph 10, Part 1 (General Provisions) of the Articles of Agreement are minimal.

(a) It must be shown to the satisfaction of the State Revenue Commissioner that a professional organization of sufficient size, quality and experience is in existence.
(b) Where such organization is perfected by association, all associates must be principals and must sign as parties to the contract between the appraisal firm and the County.
(2) A running review of the approval list of appraisal firms will be maintained by the State Revenue Commissioner.

(a) Unsatisfactory performance, as determined by the State Revenue Commissioner, will result in immediate removal from said list.
(b) All appraisal firms not having performed satisfactorily on a contract with a County during calendar year will be automatically dropped from the approved list on January 1 of the succeeding calendar year, and may be reinstated only by reapplying to the State Revenue Commissioner as set out in sub-paragraph (1) above.

560-11-2-.09 Planning Expenses.

No disbursement of funds directly to the counties will be made by the State under this program, and no loan made to a county by the State or by a commercial lender will include reimbursement to the county for payroll or other expenses incurred by the county either in planning or performing a property valuation and equalization program.

560-11-2-.10 Payment of Additional Funds.

In the event that the State Revenue Commissioner shall determine that sufficient funds are not available from State sources to meet the needs of any county in financing a qualified program and the governing authority of the county demonstrates that sufficient additional funds can be obtained from other sources to complete the program, the State Revenue Commissioner will, from funds appropriated for the purpose, contract with the governing authority for the payment by the State of ten percent (10%) of that part of the cost of such qualified program as is financed by a commercial loan. However, the amount to be paid by the State under any such contract with a county shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). This payment is not an advance or loan from the State and is not to be repaid by the County.

560-11-2-.11 Disbursements.

(1) Upon approval of an application by a county for financial assistance by the State under this program and the execution of a loan agreement by the county and the State Revenue Commissioner, the amount of the loan agreed upon will be set up to the credit of the county on the records of the State Revenue Commissioner. Disbursements by the State Revenue Commissioner under the loan agreement with the county will be made as follows:

(a) Directly to the appraisal firm performing the work under an approved contract with the county.

(b) Quarterly: On January 15, April 15, July 15, and October 15.

(c) On the basis and in the amount of itemized monthly billings presented by the appraisal firm to the county and approved for payment by the Board of Tax Assessors and the governing authority of the county and by the State Revenue Commissioner.

(2) As these quarterly progress payments are made directly to the appraisal firm a charge will be made against the loan set up to the credit of the county, but in no event will these disbursements exceed the amount of the loan as provided in the contract between the county and the State Revenue Commissioner.

(3) The State Revenue Commissioner shall withhold 10% of each quarterly progress payment pending satisfactory completion by the appraisal firm of all work and obligations under the contract.

560-11-2-.12 Payments by Commercial Lender.

(1) Upon approval of an application for a commercial loan by the State Revenue Commissioner, the amount of the loan agreed upon will be made available by the commercial lender to the County in periodic payments as follows:
(a) Quarterly: On January 15, April 15, July 15, and October 15.
(b) On the basis and in the amount of itemized monthly billings presented by the appraisal firm to the county and approved for payment by the Board of Tax Assessors and the governing authority of the county and by the State Revenue Commissioner. An appropriate form, showing the amount of such billings and the State Revenue Commissioner's approval, will be authority for the periodic advances by the commercial lender.
(2) In no event will the cumulative total of the periodic advances by the commercial lender under the loan contract exceed the amount of the loan as approved by the State Revenue Commissioner.
(3) The County shall withhold 10% of each quarterly progress payment pending satisfactory completion by the appraisal firm of all work and obligations under its contract with the County.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on June 30, 1965.

560-11-2-.13 Computation of 10% Limit.

(1) Where, because sufficient funds are unavailable from State sources to meet the cost of a qualified property valuation and equalization program submitted by a county, both a State financial assistance loan and a commercial loan are approved by the State Revenue Commissioner to finance such program, the State grant of ten percent (10%) provided for under Section 560-11-2-.10 above shall be computed on the amount of the commercial loan approved which added to the State financial assistance loan approved shall not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), the maximum limit of a State financial assistance loan.
(2) Examples: If the cost of a qualified program is $175,000, and a State financial assistance loan is approved for $50,000 and a commercial loan for $125,000, then the State grant would be in the amount of $5,000. If a State financial Assistance Loan is approved for $100,000 and a commercial loan for $75,000, then no State grant would be made under the ten percent (10%) provision.

560-11-2-.14 Alterations in Agreement.

Once a county-appraisal firm agreement and, where applicable, a commercial loan agreement, is approved by the State Revenue Commissioner, no alterations, deletions or additions, either oral or in writing, in, of or to the provisions thereof will be made without the prior written approval of the State Revenue Commissioner.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule entitled "Alterations in Agreement" was filed and effective on June 30, 1965.

The individual microfilm rolls shall be properly labeled to indicate the material contained thereon and an index to the individual microfilm rolls will also be provided. The delivery of said microfilm copy and index and the furnishing of said certificate shall be a prerequisite to the release of the 10% retainage fund provided for in the agreement between the County and the appraisal firm. Said microfilm copy will be filed by the State Revenue Commissioner and shall be available for examination upon request by authorities.

Chapter 10 APPRAISAL PROCEDURE MANUAL

560-11-10-.01 Purpose and Scope.

(1) Purpose. This appraisal procedures manual has been developed in accordance with Code section 48-5-269.1 which directs the Revenue Commissioner to adopt by rule, subject to Chapter 13 of Title 50, the "Georgia Administrative Procedure Act," and maintain an appropriate procedural manual for use by the county property appraisal staff in appraising tangible real and personal property for ad valorem tax purposes.

(2) Specific procedures. In order to facilitate the mass appraisal process, specific procedures are provided within this Chapter which are designed to arrive at a basic appraisal value of real and personal property. These specific procedures are designed to provide fair market value under normal circumstances. When unusual circumstances are affecting value, they should be considered. In all instances, the appraisal staff will apply Georgia law and generally accepted appraisal practices to the basic appraisal values required by this manual and make any further valuation adjustments necessary to arrive at the fair market values.

(3) Board of tax assessors. The county board of tax assessors shall require the appraisal staff to observe the procedures in this manual when performing their appraisals. The county board of tax assessors may not adopt local procedures that are in conflict with Georgia law or the procedures required by this manual. The county board of tax assessors must consider the appraisal staff information in the performance of their duties. In each instance, however, the assessment placed on each parcel of property shall be the assessment established by the county board of tax assessors as provided in Code section 48-5-306.

(4) Other appraisal procedures. The appraisal staff may use those generally accepted appraisal practices set forth in the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice, published by the Appraisal Foundation, and the standards published by the International Association of Assessing Officers, as they may be amended from time to time, to the extent such practices do not conflict with this manual and Georgia law.

560-11-10-.02 Definitions.

(1) Definitions. When used in this Chapter, the definitions found in this Rule shall apply.

(a) Absorption rate. "Absorption rate" means the rate at which the real estate market can absorb real property of a given type.

(b) Appraiser. "Appraiser" means a member of the county appraisal staff, who serves the board of tax assessors and whose position was created pursuant to Part 1 of Article 5 of Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated. This term does not limit its meaning to a single appraiser and may mean one or more members of the county appraisal staff.

(c) Basic cost approach. "Basic cost approach" means a cost approach procedure, used in the mass appraisal of personal property, which uses standard estimates of the most common factors affecting the value of such property. The basic cost approach is intended to provide a uniform estimate of personal property value.

(d) Depreciation. "Depreciation" means the loss of value due to any cause. It is the difference between the market value of a structural improvement or piece of equipment and its reproduction or replacement cost as of the date of valuation. Depreciation is divided into three categories, physical deterioration, functional obsolescence, and economic obsolescence. Depreciation may be further characterized as curable or incurable depending upon the difficulty or practicality of restoring the lost value through repair or maintenance.

(e) Economic life. "Economic life" means the period during which property may reasonably be expected to perform the function for which it was designed or intended.

(f) Economic obsolescence. "Economic obsolescence" means a form of depreciation that measures a loss of value from negative influence external to the real or personal property. It results when the desirability or useful life of real or personal property is impaired due to forces such as changes in optimum use, legislative enactment that restricts or impairs productivity, and changes in supply and demand relationships. Economic obsolescence is normally incurable.

(g) Effective age. "Effective age" means the age of an improvement to property as compared with other property performing like functions. It is the actual ageless the age that has been taken off by face-lifting, structural reconstruction, removal of functional inadequacies, modernization of equipment, and similar repairs and overhauls. It is an age that reflects a true remaining life for the property, taking into account the typical life expectancy of buildings or equipment of its class and usage.

(h) Fair market value. "Fair market value" means fair market value as defined in Code section 48-5-2 (3).

(i) Final assessment. “Final assessment” means the assessed value of real property as stated on the Annual Notice of Assessment as approved by the Board of Assessors. Amendments to “Final assessment” for real property are prohibited absent a clerical error or some other lawful basis; and in the case of personal property, the appraisal staff has completed its audit of the personal property pursuant to Rule 560-11-10-.08(4)(d) within the three year statute of limitations.

(j) Functional obsolescence. "Functional obsolescence" means a form of depreciation that measures a loss of value from a design deficiency or appearance in the market of a more innovative design. Some functional obsolescence may be curable and some functional obsolescence may be incurable.
(k) Inventory. "Inventory", means goods held for sale or lease or furnished under contracts for service; also, supplies, packing materials, spare parts, raw materials, work in process or materials used or consumed in a business.

(I) Large acreage tract. "Large acreage tract" means a rural land tract that is greater in acreage than the small acreage break point.

(m) Mass appraisal. "Mass appraisal" means the process of valuing a universe of properties as of a given date using standard methodology, employing common data and allowing for statistical testing.

(n) Most Recent Arm's Length Sale. As referenced in OCGA 48-5-2(3), transactions must occur prior to the statutory date of valuation to become eligible for the value limitations imposed in 48-5-2(3). Furthermore, where the exchange of property is defined as an arm's length transaction, the sum of the value of the exchanged real estate property components, land and improvements, in the year following the property exchange shall not exceed the transaction's sale price adjusted for non-real estate values such as but not limited to, timber, personal property, etc. The adjustment to the value of the real estate shall remain in effect for at least the digest year following the transaction. With respect to changes in the exchanged real estate property components since the time of exchange (sale date), the value of new improvements, value of additions to existing improvements (footprint of exchanged structure has been altered), major remodeling or renovations to existing structures (footprint of exchanged structure has not been altered), and adjustments to land due to consolidation of tracts, new surveys, zoning changes, land use changes, etc. shall be added to the sales price adjusted values. In the event an exchanged real estate property structure is renovated or remodeled, the term major shall be construed such that both the property owner and BOA would reasonably conclude a major renovation/remodeling has occurred. If either party, acting reasonably, could debate that the renovation/remodeling effort was not major in nature, the renovation/remodeling effort does not qualify and shall not be added to the sales price adjusted values. Any modifications made to the exchanged real estate property after the sale date that result in a lower value of the exchanged property shall be considered in the final valuation of property for the digest.

(o) Original cost. "Original cost" means, in the case of machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures in the hands of the final user, all the direct costs associated with acquiring, transporting and installing such property at the site where it is to be used. This includes the cost of the property to the property owner, the cost of transporting the property to its present site, the cost of any on-site assembly or customized modification of the property, the cost of installing the property, the cost of installing personal fixtures and trade fixtures necessary for the proper operation of the property, and any sales or use tax paid on the property. Original cost is equivalent to original cost new if the property owner was the first to put the personal property into service.

(p) Original cost new. "Original cost new" means, in the case of machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures in the hands of the final user, all the direct costs associated with acquiring, transporting and installing such property at the site where it is to be used. This includes the historical cost of the property at the time it was first put into service new, the cost of transporting the property to its present site, the cost of any on-site assembly or customized modification of the property, the cost of installing the property, the cost of installing personal fixtures and trade fixtures necessary for the proper operation of the property, and any sales or use tax paid on the property. Original cost new is equivalent to original cost if the property owner was the first to put the personal property into service.
(q) Paired sales analysis. "Paired sales analysis" means the comparing of the sale prices of similar properties, some with and some without a particular characteristic, in order to determine what portion of the difference in sales price might be attributable to such characteristic.

(r) Personal fixtures. "Personal fixtures" means personal property that has been set-up or installed on land or in a building or in a group of buildings and is not permanently attached to such land or buildings. A consideration for whether personal property is a personal fixture is whether its removal would cause significant damage to such property or to the real property on which it has been set-up or installed. The term personal fixtures shall not include trade fixtures. Personal fixtures are classified as personal property. Examples of personal fixtures are desks, shelving, display cases and gondolas.

(s) Personal property. "Personal property" means tangible personal property that may be seen, weighed, measured, felt, or touched or which is in any other manner perceptible to the senses. Personal property shall include trade fixtures. For the purposes of this Rule, personal property shall not include the capital stock of all corporations; money, notes, bonds, accounts, or other credits, secured or unsecured; patent rights, copyrights, franchises, and any other classes and kinds of property defined by law as intangible personal property.

(t) Physical deterioration. "Physical deterioration" means a form of depreciation that measures the loss of utility of real or personal property over time from wear and tear, age, and exposure to the elements. Some physical deterioration may be curable and some physical deterioration may be incurable.

(u) Ready market. "Ready market" means a market, possibly global, where exchanges of machinery, equipment, personal fixtures and trade fixtures occur with such regularity and under such conditions as to provide a reliable measure of fair market value. Five conditions that may indicate a ready market are: the items of personal property being sold within the market are reasonable substitutes for each other; there are an adequate number of buyers and sellers of the personal property in the market, no one of whom can measurably affect price; there is an absence of artificial restraints and unusual incentives in the market; the item of personal property is reasonably free to be moved where it will receive the greatest return and buyers are reasonably free to buy where the price is lowest; and buyers and sellers are knowledgeable and informed about market conditions.

(v) Real estate. "Real estate" means the physical parcel of land, improvements to the land, improvements attached to the land, real fixtures and appurtenances such as easements.

(w) Real fixtures. "Real fixtures" means personal property that has been installed or attached to land or a building or group of buildings and is intended to remain permanently in its place. A consideration for whether personal property is a real fixture is whether its removal would cause significant damage to such property or to the real property to which it is attached. The term real fixtures shall not include trade fixtures. Real fixtures are classified as real property. Examples of real fixtures are plumbing, heating and cooling, and lighting fixtures.

(x) Real property. "Real property" means the bundle of rights, interests, and benefits connected with the ownership of real estate. Real property does not include the intangible benefits associated with the ownership of real estate, such as the goodwill of a going business concern.
(y) Replacement cost. "Replacement cost" for real property means the cost required to construct a similar structure with like utility as the subject property using modern design, materials, and workmanship. Replacement cost for personal property means the current cost of a similar new item having the nearest equivalent utility as the subject property.

(z) Reproduction cost. "Reproduction cost" for real property means the cost required to construct an identical or exact replica structure of the subject property. Reproduction cost for personal property means the current cost of duplicating an identical new item.

(aa) Residual value. "Residual value" means the value of personal property that is at the end of its normally expected economic life but still in use.

(bb) Rural land. "Rural land" means any land that normally lies outside corporate limits, planned subdivisions, commercial sites, and industrial sites.

(cc) Salvage value. "Salvage value" means the value of personal property that is at the end of its normally expected economic life and has been taken out of use.

(dd) Small acreage break point. "Small acreage break point" means the point, expressed as a number of acres, at which the slope of a trend line, drawn through the plotted qualified sales of rural land on a graph, reflects a distinct and pronounced change. Such graph uses the dollars per acre on the vertical axis and numbers of acres on the horizontal axis. The small acreage break point should show the point below which the market factors of accessibility and desirability of the land primarily influence value, and above which the productivity of the soil and suitability for timber growth primarily influence value.

(ee) Small acreage tract. "Small acreage tract" means a rural land tract that is equal to or smaller in acres than the small acreage break point.

(ff) Tax situs. "Tax situs" means the location of personal property for ad valorem tax purposes.

(gg) Trade fixtures. "Trade fixtures" means fixtures that are owned and temporarily installed or attached to a rented space or building by a tenant and used in conducting a business. For personal property to be classified as trade fixtures the lease or rental agreement has to show intent for the fixtures to be removed by the owner at the termination of the lease. Fixtures that revert to the landlord when the lease is terminated are not trade fixtures. Property shall not be classified as a trade fixture when the cost of removal, or damage that removal would cause to the realty, or to the fixture itself, clearly indicates that a tenant is unlikely to remove such fixture at the termination of the lease. Trade fixtures shall be classified as personal property.

(hh) Transitional real property. "Transitional real property" means any real property that is undergoing a change in use, such as residential, agricultural, commercial, or industrial, and has not been firmly established in its new use. Change in use may be evidenced by recent zoning changes, purchase by a known developer, affidavits of intent, or close proximity to property exposed to these market factors.

(ii) Trend. "Trend" means an observable tendency of behavior such as stable economic direction over extended periods despite temporary fluctuations.

560-11-10-.08 Personal Property Appraisal.

(1) Personal property identification. The appraisal staff shall identify personal property, determine its taxability, and classify it for addition to the county ad valorem tax digest in accordance with this paragraph.

(a) Distinguishing personal property. The appraiser shall be required to correctly identify personal property and distinguish it from real property where the proper valuation procedures, as set forth in this Rule, may be followed.

1. Examples. As used in this Chapter, personal property shall be that property defined in Rule 560-11-10-.02(1)(r). This Rule shall provide illustrations to assist the appraiser in the proper interpretation of the definition. However, these illustrations should not be construed in a manner that conflicts with the definition. Examples of personal property are tangible items such as aircraft; boats and motors; inventories of retail stock, finished manufactured or processed goods, goods in process, raw materials and supplies; furniture, personal fixtures, trade fixtures, machinery and equipment.

2. Identification of trade fixtures. When property the appraiser believes is a trade fixture has not been returned by the tenant, the appraiser shall require the tenant to produce their lease agreement and shall carefully review the agreement before making a recommendation to the board of tax assessors regarding the classification of the property in question. The appraiser shall inform the tenant that they may redact, at their option, any information relating to the payments that are required by the lease agreement.

(b) Assessment date. Code section 48-5-10 provides that each return by a property owner shall be for property held and subject to taxation on January 1 of the tax year. The appraisal staff shall base their decisions regarding the taxability, tax situs, uniform assessment, and valuation of personal property on the circumstances of such property on January 1 of the tax year for which the assessment is being prepared. When personal property is transferred to a new owner or converted to a new use, the circumstances of such property on January 1 shall nevertheless be considered as controlling.

(c) Freeport exemptions.

1. Mailing applications. The appraisal staff shall, by U. S. mail, send a new freeport exemption application to any person, firm or corporation that was approved for freeport exemption by the board of tax assessors for the tax year proceeding the tax year for which the application is to be made. The application provided by the appraisal staff shall be deposited with the local post office no later than the 15th day after the official who is responsible for receiving returns has opened the books for returns. The failure of the appraisal staff to comply with this requirement shall not relieve a person, firm or corporation from the responsibility to timely file a freeport application.
2. Reviewing applications. The appraisal staff shall, upon receipt of a freeport application, reconcile the figures reported on such form to any inventory totals that may have been returned by the property owner. The appraisal staff may obtain relevant information as is available from financial records or other records of the property owner when needed to reconcile the figures reported on the application. Once the appraisal staff has completed the reconciliation of the freeport application, they shall forward the application and their recommendations, along with any supporting documentation, to the board of tax assessors. When the appraisal staff recommends the freeport application be denied, in whole or in part, they shall include the reasons for their recommendation.

(d) Tax situs. The appraisal staff shall inquire into the proper tax situs of personal property before preparing the proposed assessment to ensure that the property owner is made subject to only those taxes that may legally be levied. The tax situs inquiry shall be sufficiently specific to determine whether the property is subject to tax by each of the authorities authorized to levy taxes in the county.

1. General tax situs. Unless otherwise provided in subparagraph (d) of this paragraph, the appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of personal property to be as provided in this subparagraph.

(i) Tax situs of personal property of Georgia residents. The appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of personal property owned by a Georgia resident as being the domicile of the owner unless such property has acquired a business situs elsewhere. The appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of personal property owned by a Georgia resident and used in connection with a business as being the location of the business. In making the determination of tax situs, the appraisal staff shall consider such factors as the principal location of the personal property, the base from which its operations normally originate and whether the personal property is connected with some business enterprise that is situated more or less permanently in the county, as distinguished from an enterprise whose location is merely transitory or temporary. When personal property used in connection with a business is moved about in such a manner that it is not predominantly located during the year in one place, the appraisal staff shall consider the headquarters of the business as the tax situs.

(ii) Tax situs of personal property of non-residents. The appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of personal property owned by non-residents as being where the property is located. The appraisal staff shall recommend to the board of tax assessors a "no tax situs" status for any personal property owned by a nonresident who does not maintain a place of business in Georgia and who gives the personal property to a commercial printer in Georgia for printing services to be performed in Georgia.

2. Tax situs of boats. In accordance with Code section 48-5-16(d), the appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of a boat to be the tax district wherein lies the domicile of the owner, even when the boat is located within another tax district in the county. When the boat is functionally located for recreational or convenience purposes for 184 days or more in a county other than where the owner is domiciled, the appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of the boat to be where it is functionally located.

3. Tax situs of aircraft. In accordance with Code section 48-5-16(e), the appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of an aircraft to be the tax district wherein lies the domicile of the owner, even when the aircraft is located within another tax district in the county. When the aircraft's primary home base is in a county other than where the owner is domiciled, the appraisal staff shall consider the tax situs of the aircraft to be where it is principally hangered or tied down and out of which its flights normally originate.
4. Tax situs of foreign merchandise in transit. The appraisal staff shall recommend to the board of tax assessors a "no tax situs" status for foreign merchandise that is in transit through this state. The recommendation of "no tax situs" shall be made regardless of the fact that while the foreign merchandise is in the warehouse it is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled, or repackaged. The grant of "no tax situs" status shall be liberally construed. In deciding whether goods are foreign, the appraisal staff shall determine if the point of origin is a non-domestic shipping port. In deciding whether goods are in transit, the appraisal staff shall consider whether the interruption in the transport of the goods may be characterized as having a business purpose or advantage, rather than just being an incidental interruption in the continuity of transit.

(e) Assessments of personal property used on state contracts. Under Code section 50-17-29(e)(1), the appraisal staff shall not propose an assessment upon the personal property of any contractor or subcontractor as a condition to or result of the performance of a contract, work, or services by such contractor or subcontractor in connection with any project being constructed, repaired, remodeled, enlarged, serviced, or destroyed for, or on behalf of, the state or any of its agencies, boards, bureaus, commissions, and authorities. The appraisal staff shall inquire into the nature of the use of such property and prepare their proposed assessment in accordance with this Subparagraph.

1. Personal property located in headquarters’ county. When the tax situs of the personal property being used on state projects is in the same county as where the property owner’s permanent business headquarters and administrative offices are located, and such property is not used exclusively for the state projects contemplated by Code section 50-17-29(e)(1), the appraisal staff shall not apportion their proposed assessment of the property. When such property is used exclusively for such state projects, such property is made exempt by Code section 50-17-29(e)(1) from ad valorem taxation by the county and the appraisal staff shall treat such property as exempt property is treated.

2. Personal property not located in headquarters’ county. When the tax situs of the personal property being used on state projects is in a county other than where the property owner’s permanent business headquarters and administrative offices are located, and such property would not be located in the county absent the state projects, then the appraisal staff shall apportion their proposed assessment of such property as follows: The exempt portion of the personal property being used on state projects shall be that pro rata portion of the total value of such property that represents the percentage the contractor or subcontractor can reasonably demonstrate is likely to represent the portion of their business that will result from state projects during the tax year. The appraisal staff may consider the percentage of income, production output, or time attributable to state projects during the preceding year. The appraisal staff shall consider any information submitted by the property owner regarding the basis for the apportionment. The appraisal staff shall not apportion the personal property when the property owner fails to provide reasonable evidence necessary to determine the portion of the property owner’s business that will result from state projects during the year.

(f) Partial assessments. Unless specifically provided by law and this Rule, the appraisal staff shall not prepare a partial appraisal based on the fact that personal property is owned or used during the year in a manner that would make it exempt part of the year and taxable part of the year.

(2) Classification. The appraisal staff shall classify personal property as provided in Rule 560-11-2-.21 for inclusion in the county tax digest.

(3) Return of personal property. In accordance with Code section 48-5-299(a), the appraisal staff, on behalf of the board of tax assessors, shall investigate diligently and inquire into the property owned in the county for the purpose of ascertaining what real and tangible personal property is subject to taxation in the county and to require the proper return of the property for taxation. The appraisal staff shall make such investigation as may be necessary to determine the value of any property upon which for any reason all taxes due the state or the county have not been paid in full as required by law. In all cases where taxes are assessed against the owner of property, the appraisal staff shall prepare a proposed assessment on the property according to the best information obtainable.

(a) Information sources. The appraisal staff should develop and maintain information sources for the discovery of unreturned personal property.

(b) Returns. Property owners shall use Department of Revenue authorized return forms when returning personal property. No other forms shall be provided for this purpose to property owners by the county official responsible for receiving returns unless previously approved in writing by the Revenue Commissioner.

1. Authorized return forms. The returns described in this subparagraph shall be authorized for use when returning personal property.

(i) Form PT-50P. The return form PT-50P, entitled "Business Personal Property Tax Return," may be used for the return of business personal property

(ii) Form PT-50PF. The return form PT-50PF, entitled Application for Freeport Exemption," may be used for the application for freeport exemption.

(iii) Form PT-50MA. The return form PT-50MA, entitled "Marine / Aircraft Personal Property Tax Return," may be used for the return of boats or aircraft.

2. Obtaining returns from receiver. Each year, after the deadline for filing returns, the appraisal staff shall secure the returns from the official responsible for receiving returns on or before the tenth day following such deadline.

3. Automatic returns. In accordance with Code section 48-5-20, the appraisal staff shall deem any property owner that does not file a return by the deadline as returning for taxation the same property as was returned or deemed to have been returned in the preceding tax year at the same valuation as the property was finally determined to be subject to taxation in the preceding year.

(c) Reporting schedules. Property owners shall use Department of Revenue authorized reporting schedules when reporting supporting information for authorized return forms. No other reporting schedules shall be provided for this purpose to property owners by the county official responsible for reviewing returns unless previously approved in writing by the Revenue Commissioner. A property owner may attach other schedules or documents that provide further support for the value they have placed on their personal property return. The appraisal staff shall consider all additional information submitted by the property owner with the return and reporting schedules. The reporting schedules required by Rule 560-11-10-.08(3)(c) and appropriate for the type of personal property being returned and any other information submitted with the return by the property owner are made confidential by Code section 48-5-314 and shall be treated as such by the appraisal staff. The appraisal staff shall not consider as fully returned any property that is omitted, misrepresented, or undervalued on the supporting reporting schedules and accompanying property owner documents, as these provide the basis for the property owner's declarations of value on the return and are necessary for the board of assessors to carry out their responsibility under Code section 48-5-299 to, through their appraisal staff, ascertaining what personal property is subject to taxation in the county and to require the proper return of the property for taxation.

1. Authorized reporting schedules. The reporting schedules described in this subparagraph shall be authorized for use when reporting information to support the return of personal property.

(i) Schedule A. The reporting schedule entitled "Schedule A" may be used to list and describe any furniture, trade fixtures, personal fixtures, machinery and equipment that is included on the property owner's return.

(ii) Schedule B. The reporting schedule entitled "Schedule B" may be used to list and describe any inventory that is included on the property owner's return.

(iii) Schedule C. The reporting schedule entitled "Schedule C" may be used to list and describe any construction in progress that is included on the property owner's return.

(iv) Schedule D. The reporting schedule entitled "Schedule D" may be used to list and describe any boats or aircraft that are included on the property owner's return.

(4) Verification. The appraisal staff shall review and audit the returns in accordance with policies and procedures set by the county board of tax assessors consistent with Georgia law and this Rule.

(a) Omissions and undervaluations. If not otherwise prohibited by law or this Rule, the appraisal staff shall recommend an additional assessment to the board of tax assessors when any review or audit reveals that a property owner has omitted from their return any property that should be returned or has failed to return any of their property at its fair market value. The appraisal staff shall recommend a reduced assessment to the board of tax assessors when any review or audit reveals that a property owner has overstated the amount of personal property subject to taxation.

(b) Reassessments. The appraisal staff shall recommend to the board of tax assessors a new assessment when the property owner has omitted personal property from their return or failed to return personal property at its fair market value, when such omission or undervaluation has been discovered by an audit conducted pursuant to Rule 560-11-10-.08(4)(d). The appraisal staff shall not be precluded from conducting such an audit merely because a change of assessment has been made on the personal property as a result of a review conducted pursuant to Rule 560-11-10-.08(4)(c). However, the appraisal staff may not recommend to the board of tax assessors a reassessment of the same personal property for which an audit has been conducted pursuant to Rule 560-11-10-.08(4)(d) and a final assessment has already been made by the board.

(c) Review. The purpose of a review is to determine if a property owner has correctly and fully completed their return and reporting schedules. It is based upon the good-faith disclosures of the property owner and information that is readily ascertainable by the appraisal staff. The review of an owner's return may consist of, but is not limited to, an analysis of any improper omissions or inclusions, improperly applied or omitted depreciation, and improperly applied or omitted inflation or deflation of the value of the owner's property. The examination should include a comparison of the current return information with return information from prior years. The appraiser should contact the owner or their agent by an on-site visit, telephone call, or written correspondence to attempt to resolve any questionable items. Returns with unresolved discrepancies, unexpected values, or incomplete information should be escalated to an audit.

(d) Audits. The purpose of an audit is to gather information that will allow the appraiser to make an accurate determination of the fair market value of the property owned by the property owner and subject to taxation. An audit is an examination of the records of the property owner to make an independent determination of the fair market value of such property where such determination does not solely depend upon the good-faith disclosures of the property owner and information that is readily ascertainable by the appraisal staff. The appraisal staff shall perform, consistent with Georgia Law and policies that are established by the board of tax assessors, audits of the records of the property owners to verify the returns of personal property. These audits may take place at any time within the seven-year statute of limitations, which begins on the date the personal property was required by law to be returned.

1. Scope of audit. The audit may be an advanced desk audit of certain additional property owner records that are voluntarily submitted or obtained by subpoena from the property owner or a complex on-site detailed audit of the property owner’s books and records combined with a physical inspection of the personal property. The documents the appraisal staff should secure include, but are not limited to, schedules A, B, and C of form PT-50P; a balance sheet or other type of financial record that for a particular location reflects the business’ book value as of January 1 of the tax year being audited; a ledger of capitalized personal property items held on January 1 of the tax year being audited; and an income statement.

(i) Use of subpoena. The appraiser should request the board of tax assessors to subpoena, within the limitations of their subpoena powers, any existing documents the property owner fails to provide voluntarily, when these documents are deemed by the appraiser to be critical to the audit. Since the appraiser may not request a subpoena for documents that do not presently exist in the format needed, the appraiser should seek existing documents held by the property owner and solicit the owner’s voluntary cooperation in obtaining these documents.

2. Contracts with auditing specialists. The appraiser shall secure non-disclosure statements from any contracted audit specialist to ensure that such specialist shall conform with the confidentiality provisions of Code section 48-5-314 and shall not disclose the property owner’s confidential records to unauthorized persons or use such confidential records for purposes other than the county’s review for ad valorem tax purposes of the tax return and supporting documentation. The appraisal staff shall provide a copy of such non-disclosure statement to the property owner upon such owner’s request. The appraiser shall not recommend to the board of tax assessors any contract or agreement with an audit specialist that provides for such specialist to contingently share a percentage of the tax collected as a result of any audits such specialist may perform.

(i) Notice to property owner. The lead appraiser shall ensure the property owner is sent a notice they have been selected for an audit of their personal property holdings for ad valorem tax purposes. The notice shall, at a minimum, indicate the following: the purposes and goals of the audit and the law authorizing the audit; the name of the lead appraiser who is primarily responsible for the conduct of the audit; the names of the members of the audit team that will be performing the audit; the number of years that will be audited; a description of the type records that should be made available; a description of how the audit will be conducted; the range of dates desired for the audit; and contact information should the property owner wish to contact the lead appraiser. The notice shall contain a statement that the lead appraiser will be contacting the property owner by telephone to establish the date and time of the audit and to determine the availability and location of records. At the conclusion of the audit, if there is sufficient evidence to warrant a recommended change of assessment, the lead appraiser shall have prepared a list of preliminary audit findings and provide such list to the property owner to afford them an opportunity to meet and discuss the findings and view any supporting schedules and documents relied upon by the individuals conducting the audit. After any such meeting requested by the property owner, the lead appraiser shall have prepared the final audit report and proposed assessment and provide a copy to the property owner and the board of tax assessors.

(e) Audit selection criteria. The appraisal staff shall recommend to the board of tax assessors a review and audit selection criteria, and the appraisal staff shall follow such criteria when adopted by the board. The criteria should be designed to maximize the number of personal property returns that may be reviewed or audited with existing resources. The criteria should be fair, unbiased, and developed consistent with the requirements of Code section 48-5-299. All personal property accounts should be reviewed or audited at least once every three years.

(f) Property owner records. The appraisal staff should first endeavor to obtain the records necessary to substantiate the information returned or reported by the property owner through the voluntary cooperation of the property owner. When such voluntary cooperation is not forthcoming, and the records requested from the property owner are believed by the appraiser to be critical to a proper appraisal of the personal property, the appraiser may request that the board of tax assessors issue an appropriate subpoena for such records. The appraiser may request that the board of tax assessors issue an appropriate subpoena for the testimony of any individuals the appraiser believes poses knowledge critical to determination of the fair market value of the property owner's personal property.

1. Record types. The types of records the appraisal staff may request the board of tax assessors to issue subpoenas for include, but are not limited to, the following: chart of accounts, general ledger, detailed subsidiary ledgers, journals of original entry, balance sheet, income statement, annual report, Securities Exchange Commission Form 10K. The types of records the appraisal staff may not request the board of tax assessors to issue subpoenas for include the following:

(i) Income tax returns. Forms and schedules authorized by the Internal Revenue Service or the revenue collecting agencies of the several states for use in filing income tax returns to those agencies;

(ii) Property appraisals. A property appraisal that the property owner has obtained prior to any appeal that is filed as a result of a change of assessment being made to the property owner's personal property;

(iii) Insurance policies. An insurance policy that may contain valuation estimates of the insured personal property; or

(iv) Tenant sales information. A rent roll or document containing the individual tenant sales information on the property owner's rented or leased personal property.

(5) Valuation procedures. The appraisal staff shall follow the provisions of this paragraph when performing their appraisals. Irrespective of the valuation approach used, the final results of any appraisal of personal property by the appraisal staff shall in all instances conform to the definition of fair market value in Code section 48-5-2 and this Rule.

(a) General procedures. The appraisal staff shall consider the sales comparison, cost, and income approaches in the appraisal of personal property. The degree of dependence on any one approach will change with the availability of reliable data and type of property being appraised.
1. Information presented by property owner. The appraisal staff shall consider any timely information presented by the property owner that may have reasonable relevance to the appraisal of the owner’s personal property. The appraisal staff shall consider the effect of any factors discovered during the review or audit of the return or directly presented by the property owner that may reduce the value of the owner’s personal property, including, but not limited to all forms of depreciation, shrinkage, theft and damage.

2. Selection of approach. With respect to machinery, equipment, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures, the appraisal staff shall use the sales comparison approach to arrive at the fair market value when there is a ready market for such property. When no ready market exists, the appraiser shall next determine a basic cost approach value. When the appraiser determines that the basic cost approach value does not adequately reflect the physical deterioration, functional or economic obsolescence, or otherwise is not representative of fair market value, they shall apply the approach or combination of approaches to value that, in their judgment, results in the best estimate of fair market value. All adjustments to the basic cost approach shall be documented to the board of tax assessors.

3. Rounding. The appraisal staff may express the final fair market value estimate to the board of tax assessors in numbers that are rounded to the nearest hundred dollars.

(b) Special procedures. The appraisal staff shall observe the procedures in this Subparagraph when appraising inventory and construction in process.

1. Valuation of inventory. When appraising inventory, the appraisal staff shall consider the value of inventory to consist of all the charges incurred from its original state as raw material to its final resting place for ultimate consumption, including such items as freight and other overhead charges, with the exception of the cost of the final sale. The appraisal staff shall also consider factors contributing to any loss of value including, but not limited to, obsolescence, shrinkage, theft and damage.

2. Construction in progress. Property owners who are constructing or installing a large piece or line of production equipment may be required by generally accepted accounting principles to accrue the total costs associated with such equipment in a holding account until the construction or installation is complete and the equipment is ready for production, at which time, the property owner is permitted by such principles to post the total cost to a fixed asset account, taking appropriate depreciation. If such holding account is maintained by the property owner, the appraisal staff shall consider the total cost reported in the property owner’s holding account when appraising such property. Construction in progress shall be appraised in the same manner as other similar personal property taking into account that there may be little or no physical deterioration on such property and that the fair market value may be diminished due to the incomplete state of construction. If comparable sales information of personal property under construction is generally not available and there is no other specific evidence to measure the probable loss of value if the property is sold in an incomplete state of construction, the appraisal staff may multiply the identified total cost of construction by a uniform market risk factor of .75.

3. Overhauls. When appraising machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures, the appraisal staff shall consider the cost of all expenditures, both direct and indirect, relating to any efforts to overhaul an asset to modernize, rebuild, or otherwise extend the useful life of such asset. The following procedure is to be used by the appraisal staff to estimate the value of an overhauled asset: An adjustment to the original cost of the asset is made to reflect the cost of the components that have been replaced. The cost of the overhaul is divided by an index factor representing the accumulated inflation or deflation from the year.
of acquisition of the asset on which the overhaul was performed to the year of the overhaul. This amount is then subtracted from the original cost of the asset being overhauled. The remainder is then multiplied by the composite conversion factor for the year of the original acquisition as specified in Rule 560-11-10-.08(5)(f)(4)(iii) of this section. The current year's composite conversion factor is then applied to the cost of the overhaul, and these two figures are combined to represent the estimate of value for the overhauled asset.

(c) Level of trade. The appraisal staff shall recognize three distinct levels of trade: the manufacturing level, the wholesale level, and the retail level. The appraiser shall take into account the incremental costs that are added to a product as it advances from one level to another that may increase its value as a final product. The appraisal staff shall value the property at its level of trade.

(d) Ready markets. When the appraiser lacks sufficient evidence to demonstrate the existence of a ready market, he or she shall consider any evidence submitted by the property owner demonstrating that a ready market is available. When the property owner cannot prove the existence of a reliable ready market, the appraiser may use other valuation approaches as authorized by law and Rule 560-11-10-.08(5).

1. Liquidation sales. The appraisal staff should recognize that those liquidation sales that do not represent the way personal property is normally bought and sold may not be representative of a ready market. For such sales, the appraisal staff should consider the structure of the sale, its participants, the purchasers, and other salient facts surrounding the sale. After considering this information, the appraisal staff may disregard a sale in its entirety, adjust it to the appropriate level of trade, or accept it at face value.

(e) Sales comparison approach. The sales comparison approach uses the sales of comparable properties to estimate the value of the subject property being appraised.

1. Widely used pricing guides. The appraisal staff should make a reasonable effort to obtain and use generally accepted pricing guides that are published and widely used within the market. When using such a guide to estimate the comparative sales approach value, the appraiser shall begin with the listed retail price and then make any value adjustments as provided in the guide instructions, based on the best information available about the subject property being appraised.

2. Lesser-known pricing guides. The property owner may submit, and the appraisal staff shall consider, lesser known publications, periodicals and price lists of the specific types of personal property being returned. Such lists should be regularly consulted by buyers of the type personal property reported, and should list prices at which sellers, who regularly deal in the types of property reported, typically offer such property for sale.

(i) Validation of lesser pricing guides. In all cases where unpublished, unrecognized, or unverified sales data are submitted by the property owner, the steps the appraiser may take to validate such data include, but are not limited to, the following:

(I) Arm's length transactions. as defined in OCGA 48-5-2(1): "'Arm's length, bona fide sale' means a transaction which has occurred in good faith without fraud or deceit carried out by unrelated or unaffiliated parties, as by a willing buyer and a willing seller, each acting in his or her own self-interest, including but not limited to a distress sale, short sale, bank sale, or sale at public auction." Transactions where the lien holder receives or repossesses the property, and deed under power of sale transactions are not to be applied as an arm's length transaction.
(II) Representativeness. Verify that the sales data submitted is either all-inclusive or has been randomly selected, so as to be unbiased and fairly represent the market for the personal property being appraised. This may be accomplished by contacting known dealers of the subject personal property to determine whether other significant market data exists that supports the data submitted by the property owner.

(III) Financing. Adjust the sale price of the subject property for non-conventional financing.

(IV) Time of sale. Adjust the sale price of the subject property for the date of sale in order to estimate the value as of the January 1 assessment date.

(V) Discounts. Adjust the sale price to remove trade and cash discounts.

(VI) Comparability. Adjust the sale price of the subject property for characteristics of the subject not found in the sales to which it is being compared, such as condition, use, and extra or missing features.

3. Other factors. To finalize the sales comparison approach, the appraiser shall consider any other factors, appropriate to the approach, which may be affecting the value. When the comparative sales approach is used as the basis for the appraisal of personal property, the appraiser shall not make further adjustments to the value to reflect economic obsolescence, functional obsolescence, or inflation.

(f) Cost approach. The cost approach arrives at an estimate of value by taking the replacement or reproduction cost of the personal property and then reducing this cost to allow for physical deterioration, functional and economic obsolescence.

1. General procedure. In applying the cost approach to personal property during a review or audit of a return, the appraiser shall identify the year acquired, and total acquisition costs, including installation, freight, taxes, and fees. The acquisition costs shall then be adjusted for inflation and deflation and then depreciated as appropriate to reflect current market values.

2. Book value. The appraiser should recognize that the appraisal and accounting practices for depreciating personal property might differ. Accounting practices provide for recovery of the cost of an asset, whereas appraisal practices strive to estimate the fair market value related to the current market. The appraiser should consider depreciation in the forms of physical deterioration, functional obsolescence, and economic obsolescence, which may not necessarily be reflected in the book value. The appraiser should consider that accounting practices of property owners might also differ.

3. Valuation as a whole. The appraiser may arrange the individual items of personal property into groups with similar valuation characteristics and value such group as a whole when the itemized appraisals of each item of personal property will not add substantially to the accuracy of the determination of the cost approach value.

4. Basic cost approach. The appraisal staff shall determine the basic cost approach value of machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures using the following uniform four-step valuation procedures: Determine the original cost new of the item of personal property to the property owner; determine the uniform economic life group for the item of personal property; and multiply the original cost new times the uniform composite conversion factor appropriate for the economic life group and actual age of the item.
of personal property. Then determine a salvage value of any item of personal property when it is taken out of use at the end of its expected economic life.

(i) Original cost new. The appraisal staff shall determine the original cost new of the item of machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures. Any real improvements to the real property, including real fixtures that had to be installed for the proper operation of the property, shall be included in the appraisal of the real property and not included in the basic cost approach value of the personal property. Those portions of transportation costs and installation costs that do not represent normal and customary costs for the type personal property being appraised shall be excluded from the original cost new when determining the basic cost approach value.

(ii) Economic life groups. When determining the basic cost approach value of machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures, the appraisal staff shall separate the individual items of property into four economic life groupings that most reasonably reflect the normal economic life of such property as specified in this subparagraph. The appraiser shall use Table B-1 and B-2 of Publication 946 of the U.S. Treasury Department Internal Revenue Service, as revised in 1998, to classify the individual asset into the appropriate economic life group. For property that does not appear in such publication, the appraisal staff may determine the appropriate economic life group based on the best information available, including, but not limited to, the property owner's history of purchases and disposals.

(I) Group I. The appraisal staff shall place into Group I any assets that have a typical economic life between five and seven years.

(II) Group II. The appraisal staff shall place into Group II any assets that have a typical economic life between eight and twelve years.

(III) Group III. The appraisal staff shall place into Group III any assets that have a typical economic life of thirteen years or more.

(IV) Group IV. The appraisal staff shall place into Group IV any assets that have a typical economic life of four years or less. The appraisal staff shall also place into Group IV those assets classified as Asset Class 00.12 in Publication 946 of the U.S. Treasury Internal Revenue Service, Table B-1, as revised in 1998.

(iii) Composite conversion factors. The appraisal staff shall, in accordance with this Rule, use the composite conversion factors as provided in this subparagraph and apply the appropriate factor to the original cost new of personal property to arrive at the basic cost approach value. The last composite conversion factor in each economic life group shall not be trended and shall represent the residual value.

(I) Group I composite conversion factors. The following composite conversion factors shall be applied to Group I assets to arrive at the basic cost approach value for years one through seven: Y1-.87, Y2-.74, Y3-.58, Y4-.43, Y5-.32, Y6-.26, Y7-.21. Thereafter the residual composite conversion factor shall be .20.

(II) Group II composite conversion factors. The following composite conversion factors shall be applied to Group II assets to arrive at the basic cost approach value for years one through eleven: Y1-.92, Y2-.85, Y3-.78, Y4-.70, Y5-.63, Y6-.54, Y7-.44, Y8-.34, Y9-.28, Y10-.25, Y11-.25. Thereafter the residual composite conversion factor shall be .20.
(III) Group III composite conversion factors. The following composite conversion factors shall be applied to Group III assets to arrive at the basic cost approach value for years one through sixteen: Y1-.95, Y2-.91, Y3-.87, Y4-.82, Y5-.79, Y6-.75, Y7-.70, Y8-.63, Y9-.57, Y10-.52, Y11-.47, Y12-.41, Y13-.35, Y14-.31, Y15-.29, Y16-.28. Thereafter the residual composite conversion factor shall be .20.

(IV) Group IV composite conversion factors. The following composite conversion factors shall be applied to Group IV assets to arrive at the basic cost approach value for years one through three: Y1-.67, Y2-.54, Y3-.31. Thereafter the residual composite conversion factor shall be .10.

(iv) Basic cost approach value. The basic cost approach value shall be determined by multiplying the composite conversion factor times the original cost new of operating machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures.

(v) Salvage value. Once personal property is taken out of service at or after the end of its typical economic life, it shall be considered salvage until disposed of and the appraiser shall determine a basic cost approach value by taking ten percent of the original cost new of such property. The basic cost approach value for property withdrawn from active use but retained as backup equipment shall be one-half the basic cost approach value otherwise applicable for such property.

5. Further depreciation to basic cost approach value.

(i) Physical deterioration. The appraiser shall consider any evidence presented by the property owner demonstrating physical deterioration that is unusual for the type of personal property being appraised.

(ii) Functional obsolescence. The appraisal staff shall consider any evidence presented by the property owner demonstrating functional obsolescence for the type of personal property being appraised. One method the appraisal staff may use to determine the amount of functional obsolescence is to trend the original cost new for inflation to arrive at the reproduction cost new, and then deduct the cost of a newer replacement model with similar or improved functionality.

(iii) Economic obsolescence. The appraisal staff shall consider any evidence presented by the property owner demonstrating economic obsolescence for the type of personal property being appraised. One method the appraisal staff may use to determine the amount of economic obsolescence is to capitalize the difference between the economic rent of an item of personal property before and after the occurrence of the adverse economic influence.

(g) Income approach. The income approach to value estimates the value of personal property by determining the current value of the projected income stream. This approach is most applicable to machinery, equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, and trade fixtures. The approach should only consider the income directly attributable to the personal property being valued and not the income attributable to the real or intangible personal property forming the same business. The appraisal staff may use one of the following methods when using the income approach for the appraisal of applicable personal property:

1. Straight-line capitalization method. The straight-line capitalization method estimates the income approach value of personal property by computing the investment necessary to produce the net income attributable to the personal property. In essence, it is determined by first computing the potential gross income for a subject property by taking the monthly rent, when that is the rental basis, and multiplying that total by twelve months. The potential gross income is then adjusted to a net operating income by subtracting any expenses that legitimately represent the costs necessary for production of that income. The net operating income will represent the amount of revenue left after operating expenses that is available to return the investment, pay property tax on the property, and return a profit to the owner.

(i) Income and expense analysis. While complete data is not required on each individual property, there must be sufficient data to develop typical unit rents, typical collection loss ratios, and typical expense ratios for various type properties. Income and expense figures used in the income approach must reflect current market conditions and typical management. Actual figures may be used when they meet this criterion. When actual figures are not available or appear to be unrepresentative, typical figures should be used. Income and expense analysis builds upon the following important components: typical unit rent, potential gross rent, collection loss, typical gross income, typical expenses, and typical net income. Excluded are expenses such as depreciation charges, debt service, income taxes, and business expenses not associated with the property.

(ii) Capitalization. Capitalization involves the conversion of typical net income into an estimate of value. The estimated income is divided by the capitalization rate to arrive the estimated income approach value. The capitalization rate consists of three components. The discount rate, the recapture rate, and the effective tax rate. The discount rate represents the amount of return a prudent investor could reasonably expect on an investment in the subject property. The recapture rate represents the return of the potential investment. The effective tax rate represents the portion of the income stream allocated to pay resulting ad valorem taxes on the property.

(I) Discount rate. The appraiser should calculate the appropriate discount rate through a method known as the band of investment. The band of investment represents the weighted-average cost of the money needed to purchase the applicable personal property. The appraiser determines the percentage of the cost typically borrowed and multiplies this percentage times the typical cost of borrowing. The appraiser then determines the remaining percentage of the cost typically contributed by an investor and multiplies this percentage times the expected rate of return to the investor. An analysis of similar properties might reveal the discount rate typical for a property of a given type.

(II) Recapture rate. The appraiser should calculate the recapture rate by dividing one by the number of years remaining in the economic life of the subject property. The resulting percentage is the current year's recapture rate.

(III) Effective tax rate. The appraiser should calculate the effective tax rate by multiplying the forty percent assessment level times the tax rate in the jurisdiction in which the subject property is located. The effective tax rate is included in the capitalization rate because market value is yet unknown and property taxes can be addressed as a percentage of that unknown value in lieu of their inclusion as an expense in calculation of net annual income.

2. Direct sales analysis method. The direct sales analysis method estimates the income approach value of personal property by computing the relationship between income and sales data. This relationship is expressed as a factor. The method represents a blend of the sales comparison and income approaches because it involves application of income data in conjunction with sales data. Sales of items similar to the subject property are divided by the gross rents, for which they or identical properties are leased, to develop gross income multipliers. A gross income multiplier is selected as typical for the market, and multiplied against the gross income of the subject, or that of an identical property, to result in an estimated value. Limiting the income to rental income only produces a gross rental multiplier.
(i) Gross income or rent multiplier. The appraiser should compute the gross income multiplier by dividing the typical gross income on the personal property by the typical sales price of the personal property. The appraiser should compute the gross rent multiplier by dividing the typical gross rent on the personal property by the typical sales price of the personal property. The appraiser must identify the specific item of personal property to be valued and determine the typical gross income as gross income is determined in Rule 560-11-10-.08(5)(g)(1)(i). The item is then stratified according to its typical use. Typical use strata may include, but are not limited to, office equipment, light-duty manufacturing equipment, heavy-duty manufacturing equipment, retail sales equipment, furniture, personal fixtures, trade fixtures, restaurant equipment, or any other stratum the appraiser believes will have similar sensitivity to market fluctuations as the subject item. The appraiser may develop an individual multiplier on a single item of personal property when there are sufficient sales and rent information. This multiplier may then be used for similar items of personal property for which there may be limited sales and rent information. The income approach value estimate is computed by multiplying the estimated gross income times the gross income multiplier or the gross rent times the gross rent multiplier.

(I) Adjustments. Income data and sales prices used in the development of income multipliers should be reasonably current. Older sales may be matched against recent income figures when the sales are adjusted for time. Sales must also be adjusted for financing, condition, optional equipment, and level-of-trade.

(6) Final estimate of fair market value. After completing all calculations, considering the information supplied by the property owner, and considering the reliability of sales, cost, income and expense information, the appraiser will correlate any values indicated by those approaches to value that are deemed to have been appropriate for the subject property and form their opinion of the fair market value. The appraisal staff shall present the resulting proposed assessment, along with all supporting documentation, to the board of tax assessors for an assessment to be made by that board.

(1) Real property - Introduction. The appraisal staff shall follow the provisions of this Rule when performing their appraisals of real property. Irrespective of the valuation approach used, the result of any appraisal of real property by the appraisal staff shall conform to the definition of fair market value.

(a) General valuation procedures. The appraisal staff shall consider the sales comparison, cost, and income approaches in the appraisal of real property. The degree of dependence on any one approach will change with the availability of reliable data and type of property being appraised. The appraisal staff may express the final fair market value estimate to the board of tax assessors in numbers that are rounded to the nearest hundred dollars.

(b) Real property identification. The appraisal staff shall identify real property, determine its taxability, and classify it for addition to the county ad valorem tax digest in accordance with this subparagraph.

1. Distinguishing real property. The appraiser shall be required to correctly identify real property and distinguish it from personal property where the proper valuation procedures, as set forth in this Rule, may be followed.

(i) Real property examples. As used in this Rule, real property shall be that property defined in Rule 560-11-10-.02(1)(w). This Rule shall provide illustrations to assist the appraiser in the proper interpretation of the definition. However, these illustrations should not be construed in a manner that conflicts with the definition. Examples of real property are tangible items such as land, all improvements attached to land, real fixtures, and leasehold interests in real property.

(ii) Identification of real fixtures. When property the appraiser believes to be a real fixture has not been returned by the landlord, the appraiser shall require the landlord to produce their lease agreement and shall carefully review the agreement before making their recommendation to the board of tax assessors regarding the classification and taxability of the property in question. The appraiser shall inform the landlord that they may redact, at their option, any information relating to the payments that are required by the lease agreement.

2. Assessment date. Code section 48-5-10 provides that each return by a property owner shall be for property held and subject to taxation on January 1 of the tax year. The appraisal staff shall base their decisions regarding the taxability, uniform assessment, and valuation of real property on the circumstances of such property on January 1 of the tax year for which the assessment is being prepared. When real property is transferred to a new owner or converted to a new use, the circumstances of such property on January 1 shall nevertheless be considered as controlling.

3. Classification. The appraisal staff shall classify real property as provided in Rule 560-11-2-.21 for inclusion in the county tax digest. Real property may be further stratified and categorized as appropriate for aggregating comparable properties for an appraisal.

(2) Return of real property. In accordance with Code section 48-5-299 (a), the appraisal staff, on behalf of the board of tax assessors, shall investigate diligently and inquire into the property owned in the county, for the purpose of ascertaining what real and tangible personal property is subject to taxation in the county and to require the proper return of the property for taxation. The appraisal staff shall make such investigation as may be necessary to determine the value of any property upon which for any reason all taxes due the state or the county have not been paid in full as required by law. In all cases where taxes are assessed against the owner of property, the appraisal staff shall prepare a proposed assessment on the property according to the best information obtainable.

(a) Information sources. The appraisal staff should develop and maintain information sources for the discovery of unreturned real property.

(b) Returns. The county appraisal staff shall review the returns in accordance with policies and procedures set by the county board of tax assessors consistent with Georgia law and this Rule. Each year, after the deadline for filing returns, the appraisal staff shall secure the returns from the official responsible for receiving returns on or before the tenth day following such deadline.

1. New returns. Department of Revenue form PT-50R is authorized for use by property owners when returning real property. No other form shall be provided for this purpose to property owners by the county official responsible for receiving returns unless previously approved in writing by the Revenue Commissioner.

2. Automatic returns. In accordance with Code section 48-5-20, the appraisal staff shall deem any property owner that does not file a return by the deadline as returning for taxation the same property as was returned or deemed to have been returned in the preceding tax year at the same valuation as the property was finally determined to be subject to taxation in the preceding year.

3. Real estate transfer declaration forms. The Department of Revenue has established Form PT-61 for owners to declare the real estate transfer tax due when property is transferred from one owner to another. The appraisal staff shall review all PT-61 forms filed with the clerk of superior court to discover new owners of property and to ascertain if their property has been returned for taxation. When a property owner acquires real property by transfer in the preceding tax year and does not file a return on such property for the current tax year, the appraisal staff shall follow the procedures of this subparagraph to determine if the newly acquired property has been properly returned for taxation.

(i) When real estate transfer tax declaration form properly completed. For the purposes of subparagraph (2)(b)(3) of this Rule, the PT-61 form shall be deemed properly completed when all applicable information required by the instructions on the form has been entered on the form, it has been signed by the new owner and filed in quadruplicate with the clerk of superior court. A PT-61 form shall not be deemed properly completed when the appraisal staff determines any of the required information on the form is omitted, false, or misleading.

(ii) When transferred property deemed returned. When a property owner acquires by transfer real property that has not been subdivided from the preceding tax year, and such owner properly completes a real estate transfer tax PT-61 form and pays any real estate transfer tax that may be due as provided in Article 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 48 of the Code, the appraisal staff shall deem the owner as having returned the property acquired by transfer at the same value finally determined to be applicable to such property for the preceding year.

(iii) When transferred property deemed unreturned. The appraisal staff shall not deem as returned any property:
(I) That is an improvement made since January 1 of the preceding tax year to property that has been transferred;

(II) That has been transferred and for which the real estate transfer tax PT-61 form has not been properly completed;

(III) That has been transferred and for which the real estate transfer tax PT-61 form has not been filed with the clerk of superior court on or before the deadline for returning property in the year following the year the property is transferred; and

(IV) That has been transferred and for which the real estate transfer tax has not been paid.

(c) Reassessments. The appraisal staff may not recommend to the board of tax assessors a reassessment of the same real property for which a final assessment has already been made by the board. For the purposes of this subsection, the appraisal staff shall presume that a final assessment on real property includes both the land and any improvements to the land.

1. Recently appealed real property. The appraisal staff shall observe the provisions of Code section 48-5-299 (c) and this subparagraph before recommending a change to the assessment of real property that was the subject of an appeal on either the immediately preceding tax digest or the next immediately preceding tax digest. Such property shall be designated in the appraisal staff’s records as recently appealed property for the two tax years following the year of the appeal. This subparagraph shall not apply when such property has been returned by the taxpayer at a value different from the appeal-established value.

2. Changing assessment of recently appealed real property. In the two tax years following an appeal, the appraisal staff may not recommend an increase of assessment for the sole purpose of changing the valuation established or decision rendered in an appeal to the board of equalization, hearing officer, arbitration, or superior court. Rather a new appraisal must be accompanied by an on-site inspection to determine the occurrence of any substantial additions, deletions, or improvements to such property, errors in the appraisal staff’s records or material factors that substantially affect the current fair market value of such property since the appeal was heard that established the value of the property. The appraisal staff may recommend, consistent with the provisions of this subparagraph, to the board of tax assessors a change of assessment on the property that was the subject of the appeal when an appraisal based on current market conditions indicates the value has changed substantially from the value established by the recent appeal. Such appraisal shall be accompanied by a written statement attesting to the fact that an appraiser has conducted the required on-site inspection of the subject property and setting forth the reasons why the appraiser believes that a change of assessment is authorized under Code section 48-5-299 (c) and this subparagraph. The written statement shall attest to at least one of the following: substantial additions, deletions, or improvements to such property has occurred since January 1 of the appeal year; an error has been discovered in the property records regarding the description or characteristics of the subject property; or an occurrence of other material factors that substantially affect the current fair market value of the subject property. With respect to the term ‘substantial’; when making determinations of whether to increase a recently appealed property the appraiser shall consider the subject property components since the time of appeal (appeal hearing date), such as the value of new improvements, value of additions to existing improvements (footprint of exchanged structure has been altered), major remodeling or renovations to existing structures (footprint of exchanged structure has not been altered), and adjustments to land due to consolidation of tracts, new surveys, zoning changes, land use changes. In the event an appealed property is renovated or remodeled, the term ‘substantial’ shall be construed such that both the property owner and BOA would reasonably conclude a major renovation/remodeling has occurred. Any modifications made to the appealed property after the appeal hearing date that result in a lower value of the appealed property shall be considered in the final valuation of property for the subsequent January 1 assessment.

(d) Collecting and maintaining property information. The appraisal staff shall keep a record of information relevant to the ownership and valuation of all real property in the county and shall follow the procedures in this subparagraph when collecting and maintaining such real property data.

1. Description of property information. The type of information the appraisal staff shall maintain includes, but is not limited to, property ownership, location, size, use, physical characteristics, sales prices, construction costs, rents, and operating expenses to the extent such information is available. The appraisal staff shall, consistent with this subparagraph, recommend to the board of tax assessors a uniform policy regarding the information to be included in their records.

(i) Geographic information. Cadastral maps or computerized geographic information systems are to be maintained by the appraisal staff for all real property located in the county. In the event the county governing authority has established a separate mapping office and the maps maintained by such office conform with the requirements of this subparagraph, the appraisal staff may provide relevant information to such mapping office and still be in compliance with this subparagraph. Minimum mapping specifications shall include the following: all streets and roads plotted and identified; property lines delineated for each real property parcel; unique parcel identifier for each parcel; and physical dimensions or acreage estimate for each parcel. The appraisal staff shall use the parcel identifiers to link the real property records to the maps. The appraisal staff shall notify the Revenue Commissioner of all proposed changes to existing parcel-numbering systems before implementing such changes.

(ii) Sales information. The appraisal staff shall maintain a record of all sales of real property that are available and occur within the county. The appraisal staff should also familiarize themselves with overall market trends within their immediate geographical area of the state. They should collect and analyze sales data from other jurisdictions having market and usage conditions similar to their county for consideration when insufficient sales exist in the county to evaluate a property type, especially large acreage tracts. The Real Estate Transfer Tax document, Department of Revenue Form PT-61, shall be a primary record source. However, the appraisal staff may also review deeds of transfer and security deeds recorded in the Office of the Superior Court Clerk, and probated wills recorded in the Office of the Probate Judge to maintain a record of relevant information relating to the sale or transfer of real property. Records required to be maintained shall include at a minimum the following information: map and parcel identifier; sale date; sale price; buyer’s name; seller’s name; deed book and page number; vacant or improved; number of acres or other measure of the land; representativeness of sale using the confirming criteria provided in Rule 560-11-2-.56 (1)(d); any income and expense information reasonably available from public records; property classification as provided in Rule 560-11-2-.21, and; when available, the appraised value for the tax year immediately following the year in which the sale occurred.

(iii) Property characteristics. The appraisal staff shall maintain a record of real property characteristics. This record shall include, but not be limited to, sufficient property characteristics to classify and value the property. In addition, the following criteria may be considered when determining which characteristics should be gathered and maintained: factors that influence the market in the location being considered; requirements of the valuation approach being employed; digest classification and stratification; requirements of other governmental and private users; and marginal benefits and costs of collecting and maintaining each property characteristic.

(iv) Land and location characteristics. The appraisal staff shall maintain a record of the land and location characteristics. The record should include, but not be limited to, location, frontage, width, depth, shape, size, topography, landscaping, slope, view, drainage, hydrology, off-site improvements, soil condition, soil productivity, zoning, absorption, nuisances, use, covenants, neighborhood, corner influence, proximity to recreational water, and quality of access.

(v) Improvement characteristics. The appraisal staff shall maintain a record of the characteristics of the improvements to land. The record shall include, but not be limited to, the location, size, actual use, design, construction quality, construction materials, age and observed condition.

2. Collecting property information. The appraisal staff shall, consistent with the policies of the board of tax assessors and this subparagraph, physically inspect properties when necessary to gather the information required by Rule 560-11-10-.09(2)(d).

(i) Field inspections. The appraisal staff shall develop and present to the board of tax assessors for approval procedures that provide for periodic field inspections to identify properties and ensure that property characteristics information is complete and accurate. The procedures shall include guidelines for the physical inspection of the property by either appraisers or specially trained data collectors. The format should be designed for standardization, consistency, objectivity, completeness, easy use in the field, and should facilitate later entry into a computer assisted mass appraisal system, when one is used. When interior information is required, the procedures shall include guidelines on how and when to seek access to the property along with alternative procedures when such access is not permitted or feasible.

3. Maintaining property characteristics information. The appraisal staff shall systematically update the property characteristics information in response to changes brought about by new construction, new parcels, remodeling, demolition, and destruction. The appraisal staff shall physically measure and update their records to reflect all such changes to real properties in the county.

4. Records retention schedules. The appraisal staff shall develop, in accordance with the provisions of Code section 50-18-99, records retention schedules for each series of documents maintained in their office and have such schedules approved by the board of tax assessors before submitting the schedules to the State Records Committee for official approval pursuant to Code section 50-18-92.

(i) Building permits. In counties that issue building permits, no appraisal shall be based solely on declarations of proposed construction cost made by the person obtaining such building permits.

(ii) Aerial photographs. New aerial photographs should be compared to previous aerial photographs, if such photographs exist, to discover new or previously unrecorded construction.

(iii) Field review frequency. All real property parcels should be physically reviewed at least once every three years to ascertain that property information records are current.
(3) Land valuation. The appraisal staff shall estimate land values by use of the sales comparison or income approach to value as provided in this subparagraph giving preference to the sales comparison approach when adequate land sales are available. The appraisal staff shall identify and describe the property, collect site-specific information, make a study of trends and factors influencing value and obtain a physical measurement of the site. Once the subject is analyzed, the appraisal staff shall classify the land for valuation. Once land values have been estimated, such appraisals should be regularly reviewed and updated.

(a) Land analysis and stratification. The appraisal staff shall appraise land separately from the improvements both to consider the trends and factors affecting each and to arrive at a separate assessment for the digest. In no event, however, may the separate appraisals of the land and improvements exceed the fair market value of the land and improvements when considered as a whole. For appraisal purposes, land shall be separated into different categories based on its use and sales within the market.

1. Site analysis. The appraisal staff shall utilize the trends and factors affecting the value of the subject property, such as its accessibility and desirability. The existing zoning, existing use, existing covenants and use restrictions in the deed and in law shall be applied. The other factors the appraiser shall apply include, but are not limited to, environmental, economic, governmental, and social factors. Site-specific information that may be considered includes, but is not limited to, location, frontage, width, depth, shape, size, topography, landscaping, slope, view, drainage, hydrology, off-site improvements, soil condition, soil productivity, zoning, absorption, nuisances, use, covenants, neighborhood, corner influence, proximity to recreational water, and the quality of access.

2. Market research and verification. The appraisal staff shall build and maintain an up-to-date file system of qualified sales as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(2)(d)(1)(ii). Other preferred information to be considered is the motivations of the buyer and seller, as obtained from actual interviews of the parties to the sales. Adjustments to the sales to be considered by the appraiser include, but are not limited to, time of sale; location; physical characteristics; partial interest not conveyed; trades or exchanges included; personal property included; leases assumed; incomplete or unbuilt community property; atypical financing; existing covenants; deed restrictions; environmental, economic, governmental and social factors affecting the sale property and the subject parcel. These adjusted qualified sales may then be used to appraise the subject property.

(b) Acreage tract valuation. The appraisal staff shall determine the small acreage break point to differentiate between small acreage tracts and large acreage tracts and develop or acquire schedules for the valuation of each. When this small acreage break point cannot easily be determined, the appraisal staff shall recommend to the board of tax assessors a reasonable break point of not less than five acres nor more than twenty-five acres. The base land schedules should be applicable to all land types in a county. The documentation prepared by the appraisal staff should clearly demonstrate how the land schedule is applied and explain its limitations.

1. Small acreage tract valuation schedule. After the appraisal staff has performed the site analysis, as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(3)(a)(1), they shall analyze the market to identify groups of comparable properties that may be combined in the valuation process, as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(4)(b)(3). The appraisal staff shall then analyze the sales to establish a representative base price per acre, and adjustment factors for reflecting value added by the characteristics discovered in the site analysis. Using such base value and the adjustment factors, the appraisal staff shall develop the small acreage schedule for all acreage levels through the small acreage break point.
2. Large acreage tract valuation schedule. After the appraisal staff has performed the site analysis, as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(3)(a)(1), they shall analyze the market to identify groups of comparable properties that may be combined in the valuation process, as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(4)(b)(3). The appraisal staff shall then analyze the sales to establish a representative benchmark price per acre, and adjustment values for reflecting incremental value associated with different productivity levels, sizes, and locations, as discovered in the site analysis. Using such benchmark values and adjustment values, the appraisal staff shall develop the large acreage schedule for all acreage levels above the small acreage break point.

(i) Land productivity values. The appraisal staff should analyze sales of large acreage tracts to extract the value of all improvements, crop allotments, standing timber, and any other factors that influence the value above the base land value. The appraisal staff should then stratify the sales into two categories of open land and woodland. The base land values should be further stratified into up to nine productivity grades for each category of land, with grade one being the best, using the productivity classifications of the United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service, where available. Where soil productivity information is not available, the appraisal staff may consult with the local United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service Supervisor. Alternately, the appraisal staff may use any acceptable means by which to determine soil productivity grades including, but not limited to, aerial and infrared photography, historical soil productivity information, and present use. The appraisal staff should analyze sales within the strata and determine benchmark values for as many productivity grades as possible. The missing strata values are then determined by extrapolating between grades. In the absence of sufficient benchmark values, a system of productivity factors may be developed from crop or timber production based on ratings provided by the United States Department of Agriculture Natural Resources Conservation Service.

(ii) Pond values. The appraisal staff should analyze sales of large acreage tracts containing ponds to extract the value of ponds. The appraisal staff should develop up to three grades of ponds based upon the quality of construction with regard to the dam, the amount of tree clearing within the pond body, and the nature of the waterline around the pond.

(iii) Location and size adjustments. The appraisal staff should plot sales on an index map of the county where trends in sales prices based on size and location may be analyzed. From this analysis, the appraisal staff should develop adjustments for each homogeneous market area, which are based on a tract’s location within the county. Within each identified homogeneous market area, sales should also be analyzed to develop adjustment factors for ranges of tract sizes where the market reflects a relationship between the value per acre and the number of acres in a tract. Such factors should be calculated to the fourth decimal place and should extend from the small acreage break point to the tract acreage point where size no longer appears to have a significant impact on the price paid per acre. The appraiser should select an acreage point between these two points that represents a typical agricultural use tract size and assign it an index factor value of 1.0000. Such adjustments should be supported by clearly identifiable changes in selling prices per acre. Finally, large acreage tracts that have sold within the most recent 24 months, unless no such sale has occurred in which case the look back period should be 48 months, should be appraised using the schedule of adjustment factors and a sales ratio study performed to test for uniformity and conformity of the schedule to Rule 560-11-2-.56, and if the schedule thus conforms, the adjustments shall then be applied to all other large acreage tracts that are within the scope of the schedule being tested.

(iv) Adjustments for absorption When insufficient large tract sales are available to create a reliable schedule of factors, the appraisal staff may use comparable sales to develop values for the size tracts for which comparables exist, and then adjust these values for larger tracts by (1) estimating a rate of absorption for the smaller tracts for which data exists, (2) dividing the large tract into smaller, marketable sections, (3) developing a sales schedule with estimated income by year reflecting the absorption rate and the value characteristics of each of the smaller tracts, (4) discounting the income schedule to the present using an appropriate discount rate, and (5) summing the resulting values to arrive at an estimated value for the property.

(v) Standing Timber Value Extraction. When determining the market value of land underlying standing timber, where such standing timber is taxed in accordance with Code section 48-5-7.5, the appraiser shall not rely exclusively on the sales prices of such land that has recently had the timber harvested. Rather he or she shall also consider sales of land with standing timber after the value of such standing timber has been determined in accordance with this subparagraph and deducted from the selling price.

(I) Determine timber value from buyer and seller. For all types of timber, the value of the standing timber on recently sold land should be determined from reliable information from the buyer and seller clearly segregating the value of the standing timber from the underlying land. In the absence of such information, the appraiser may use one of the following methods to determine the value of the standing timber if in his or her judgment the results are reasonably consistent with other sales where buyer and seller information is known:

I. Calculate value of merchantable timber. For all types of merchantable timber, the value of the standing timber may be determined by multiplying estimated volumes by product class, such as softwood and hardwood pulpwood, chip and saw logs, saw timber, poles, posts, and fuel wood, of timber on the property by prices for each product class as obtained from the table of weighted average prices paid for harvested timber applicable to the year during which the sale occurred and prepared by the Commissioner pursuant to paragraph (g) of Code section 48-5-7.5. For the purposes of this subparagraph, merchantable timber shall include stands that have been in production for more than fifteen years. Estimated volumes by product class may be obtained by one of the following methods: reliable information from the buyer or seller or from specially trained data collectors who have estimated volumes from a visual on-site inspection or from an aerial survey.

II. Calculate value of pre-merchantable planted pine timber. For pre-merchantable planted pine timber, the value of the standing timber may be determined by estimating the value of the timber at the age of merchantability and then prorating this value to the actual age of the pre-merchantable stand. The appraiser may arrive at this estimate using the following steps:

A. For each applicable timber product class, multiply the estimated tons of timber volume yield per acre for each product class at the age of merchantability times the locally prevailing timber price per ton of such product classes. Sum the individual results of the timber product class calculations into a single result.

(A) In the absence of reliable locally prevailing timber price per ton information, the appraiser may use timber price per ton from the table of weighted average prices paid for harvested timber prepared by the Commissioner pursuant to paragraph (g) of Code section 48-5-7.5.

(B) In the absence of specific yield information to the contrary, the appraiser may estimate timber volume yields at an average yield of 52.2 tons per acre or preferably by using the land productivity classifications established by Rule 560-11-10-.09(3)(b)(2)(i) and the following tables of estimated yields of fully stocked planted timber stands at age fifteen, and then adjusting the yields according to the actual stocking density of the timber stand.

(C) In the absence of reliable local information on typical timber product class volume yields at the age of merchantability, the appraiser may assume that ninety percent (90%) of the timber will be pulpwood and ten percent (10%) will be chip-n-saw.

B. Multiply the result in subparagraph A. by the number of acres of pre-merchantable timberland.

C. Deduct from the result in subparagraph B. the normal cost to establish a timber stand on cut over wood-land, which shall be known as the base value. Normal cost may be determined from planters, local site prepar-ation and planning contractors and other reliable sources.

D. Divide the result in subparagraph C. by the age of merchantability to determine the average annual timber growth value. In the absence of reliable local information to the contrary, the age of merchantability shall be fifteen years.

E. Multiply the result in subparagraph D. by the actual age of the standing timber to arrive at the value of the accumulated timber growth.

F. Add back the base value deducted in subparagraph C. to the result in subparagraph E. to yield the total value of the pre-merchantable standing timber.

III. Determine value of other pre-merchantable timber.

For types of pre-merchantable timber other than planted pine, the value of the standing timber may be de-termined from the best information available. In the absence of local reliable information to the contrary, the value of other pre-merchantable timber may be estimated as follows:

A. Natural stands less than five years of age should be assigned no value.
B. Natural pre-merchantable stands five years of age and older should be valued in the same manner as planted pine timber is valued, except the appraiser should make no adjustments for the base cost of establishing the timber stand; yields for natural pine stands should be estimated at fifty percent of the volume determined for a planted pine stand; and yields for hardwood stands should be estimated at forty percent of the value determined for a planted pine stand.

(c) Site valuation. The appraisal staff may use the valuation methods in this subparagraph to appraise sites that have been developed for residential, commercial or industrial use.

1. Valuation methods with sufficient sales. The appraisal staff shall use one, or a combination of more than one, of the valuation methods in this subparagraph when sufficient sales are available to reliably support the appraisal. These methods may be used to value the land directly.

(i) Comparative unit method. To use the comparative unit method, the appraisal staff shall stratify the land sales into a stratum comparable in market area or use type to the subject parcel. The appraiser then determines a land comparison unit by which the subject parcel is normally bought and sold in the market place and converts the sales price of the comparable properties to a typical per comparison unit value, using the median measure of central tendency. Per-measurement-unit, lump sum, and percentage adjustments are then made as needed to reflect the value of subject land features that differ from the base land features. The appraiser may use one of the following five basic comparison units: front foot, square foot, acre, site or lot, and units buildable. The appraisal staff may rely upon the comparative unit method for areas where parcels vary in size but are fairly homogeneous in other aspects, as opposed to areas where the sites are similar in size but vary substantially in site characteristics. The reliability of the analysis should be verified by a calculation of the coefficient of dispersion and the price related differential. These statistical indicators should fall within the standards of Rule 560-11-2-.56 before the appraiser relies upon the selected sales to appraise the subject parcel.

(ii) Base lot method. To use the base lot method, the appraisal staff shall appraise the base parcel in each stratum using the comparative unit method, with the base lot serving as the subject parcel. Once the base-lot’s appraised value is established, it is used as a benchmark to appraise other individual parcels. The appraiser may use the base-lot method when the site characteristics are generally similar. Adjustments shall be developed using paired-sales analysis or other forms of market research. Then, the appraiser shall adjust the comparables to the base lot, calculate the measure of central tendency, and select a representative base-lot appraised value. The reliability of the analysis may be verified by a calculation of the coefficient of dispersion and the price related differential. These statistical indicators should fall within the standards of Rule 560-11-2-.56 before the appraiser relies upon the selected sales to select a base-lot appraised value.

(iii) Cost-of-development method. To use the cost-of-development method, the appraisal staff shall estimate the total development costs and subtract these costs from the projected sales prices of the developed lots to indicate the appraised value for the raw land. The projected improvements must represent the most probable use of the land. Estimated costs should include the direct costs of site preparation, utility hookups, all indirect costs, and a reasonable allowance for owner profit. The appraiser may use this method to directly value land in transition from agricultural use to residential or commercial use when there are insufficient sales to apply the comparative unit or base lot methods.

2. Valuation methods with insufficient sales. When vacant land sales are limited, the appraisal staff may use alternative methods to determine residual land values. These residual land values may be used in the same way as vacant land sales in order to establish comparative unit or base lot values. The appraisal staff shall not use these methods to establish land values directly. The alternative methods that may be used are allocation, abstraction, capitalization of ground rent, and land residual capitalization.

(i) Allocation method. Using this method, the appraisal staff estimates the typical percentage of combined land and improvement value attributable to the land alone. This land percentage estimate should be based on knowledge of the market for properties of the class being appraised and the appraiser should take into consideration the site value in previous years before being improved, the land-to-improvement ratios in similar neighborhoods, and an analysis of new construction on similarly classified sites.

(ii) Abstraction method. Using this method, the appraisal staff estimates the land residual value by subtracting the depreciated replacement cost of improvements from the sale price of an improved property.

(iii) Capitalization of ground rents method. Using this method, the appraisal staff determines the market rent of the subject site, computes a net income, selects a capitalization rate, and computes the present worth of the future benefits of the subject parcel. The appraiser should not use this method when there is insufficient market information available to estimate the income potential of the subject parcel.

(iv) Land residual capitalization method. Using this method, the appraisal staff develops the annual net operating income attributable to the property and develops capitalization rates for both the land and the improvements to the land. The estimated improvement value is multiplied by the improvement capitalization rate and the result is deducted from the forecasted annual net operating annual income. The remaining income, the residual amount attributable to the land, is then capitalized, using the land capitalization rate, into a value indicator for the land. The appraiser should only use the land residual capitalization method on new income-producing improved properties either when the improvement has little or no observed depreciation of any kind and a well-supported improvement value can be developed, or when an improvement can be hypothesized and its cost and net operating income reliably estimated.

3. Special procedures. The appraisal staff shall observe the special procedures contained in this subparagraph when appraising the described property types.

(i) Transitional land. The appraisal staff shall analyze any unusual sale amount for a single parcel of land that seems to indicate a transition from one type land use to another type land use, such as from agricultural to residential or from residential to commercial and conversely. The appraisal staff should consider that a single sale might not necessarily indicate a changing market. The appraisal staff should analyze such sales to ensure that the new use is clearly indicated by a pattern of sales before qualifying and adjusting such sales for use as comparables for appraising the remaining comparable land.

(ii) Absorption rates. When appraising a new subdivision, the appraisal staff shall use discounted cash-flow analysis in conjunction with the cost-of-development method to appraise the unsold parcels when it is anticipated that the parcels will require several more years of exposure to the market to sell. The appraisal staff may consider typical holding periods, marketing, and management practices when estimating anticipated revenues and allowable expenses.

(4) Improvement valuation. Except as provided in subparagraph (a) of this subparagraph, the appraisal staff will use the following three approaches when appraising real property: the direct sales comparison approach, the cost approach, and the income approach. In determining the reliability and representativeness of each approach or combination of approaches, the appraisal staff shall consider those factors most likely to influence buyers and sellers when those buyers and sellers are determining exchange prices in the market place, and the sufficiency of available sales, cost, income and expense information to reliably quantify those factors. However, irrespective of the valuation approach used, the final results of any appraisal of real property by the appraisal staff shall in all instances comply with the definition of fair market value in Code section 48-5-2.

(a) Cost approach. The appraisal staff shall use the following three steps when applying the cost approach: Estimate the cost new of the improvements, subtract accrued depreciation, and add the value of the land.

1. Estimating cost new. In estimating the cost new of any buildings, structures, or other improvements to land, the appraisal staff shall consider the following:

(i) Types of costs. The appraisal staff shall include both direct and indirect costs that would be incurred to build and market the property, including normal overhead and profit. The approach would normally produce the replacement cost. The appraisal staff may consider the reproduction cost, and adjust for depreciation accordingly, when appraising an unusual or special-purpose property.

(I) Comparative unit method. Unless otherwise provided under Rule 560-11-10-.09(4)(a)(1)(i), the appraisal staff shall determine benchmark per-square-foot, per-cubic-foot, or other per-measurement-unit costs for base structures using cost guides or local cost information. Such benchmark per-measurement-unit costs may then be applied to the subject improvements to determine typical replacement cost new. Per-measurement-unit, lump sum, and percentage adjustments are then made as needed to reflect the value of subject improvements features that differ from the base structures. All forms of depreciation are then applied as a lump sum factor based on the age and useful life of the subject improvements.

(II) Unit-in-place method. The appraisal staff may use the unit-in-place method when making adjustments in the comparative unit method. This method determines costs of individual construction components on a per-measurement-unit, in-place basis. The total cost of each component of the subject improvement is then found by multiplying the various per-measurement-unit costs by the number of actual measurement units installed in the subject improvement. The appraisal staff may also use this method when estimating costs for unusual or special-purpose improvements, in which case the component costs would be summed and combined with applicable indirect costs to obtain an estimate of the total replacement cost new of the subject improvements. All forms of depreciation are then applied as a lump sum factor based on the age and useful life of the subject improvements.

(III) Quantity survey method. The appraisal staff may separately itemize all various labor, material, and indirect costs when it is desirable to produce the reproduction cost new. All forms of depreciation are then applied separately based on the physical deterioration, functional obsolescence, and economic obsolescence observed by the appraiser. The appraisal staff may use this method in the development and trending of comparative unit and unit-in-place costs.

(IV) Trended original cost method. When determining the cost of structures where the comparative unit or unit-in-place methods are inapplicable, the appraisal staff may trend the original costs over time by factors obtained from a construction cost index guide. The appraisal staff shall not use this method when the original cost figures are not accurate or complete.
(ii) Sources of cost information. The appraisal staff may obtain cost information by directly collecting information from contractors, builders, developers, property owners, and other marketplace participants. Cost information may be obtained from firms that compile and publish construction information, with the appraisal staff supplementing or modifying such information with locally gathered cost information. The appraisal staff may obtain cost manuals specifically developed for the county by construction cost services and mass appraisal firms.

(iii) Updating costs. Cost information shall be updated by the appraisal staff as necessary to reasonably reflect current construction costs for the various construction classes. Indexing may be used in the short term to update cost information, but in no event shall the appraisal staff rely on indexing alone for more than three years.

(iv) Location modifiers. The appraisal staff shall develop base construction cost tables. Modifiers, in the form of factors to be applied to the cost tables, may then be developed for areas to reflect local market conditions. Different sets of modifiers may be necessary to reflect the market for different property types within a county.

(v) Cost models. The appraisal staff shall develop or acquire representative cost models that contain the manual or automated cost factor tables used in the cost approach. The models should be applicable to all building types in a county and be based on actual updated costs as defined in Rule 560-11-10-09(4)(a)(1)(iii). The models should clearly identify included indirect costs, contain depreciation estimation guidelines, and provide for systematic cost estimation on manual or automated forms. The documentation prepared by the appraisal staff should clearly demonstrate how the cost model is applied and explain its limitations.

2. Estimating depreciation. The appraisal staff shall estimate the depreciation by determining the difference between replacement or reproduction cost new and the current market value of an improvement. This determination shall require an analysis by the appraiser of physical deterioration, functional obsolescence and economic obsolescence present, keeping in mind that physical deterioration and functional obsolescence may include curable and incurable components. The appraiser may estimate depreciation as a total amount or as a percentage of replacement or reproduction cost new. Improvements with special circumstances may be treated on an exception basis. The appraisal staff shall use the effective age of improvements, when different from the actual age, when estimating depreciation. The methods the appraisal staff may use to estimate depreciation include, but are not limited to, the following four methods:

(i) Sales comparison method. To apply the sales comparison method, the appraisal staff develops estimates of total depreciation from market-derived schedules. To develop such schedules, the appraiser stratifies the sales information by type of construction and other relevant features. The appraiser then computes building residuals by deducting estimated land values from the sales prices and expressing the building residuals as a percentage of replacement cost new. The resulting "percent good" factors are then plotted against the effective ages of the properties to develop the depreciation tables. This method may be used when current representative and adequate sales information is readily available.

(ii) Age/Life method. To apply the age/life method, the appraisal staff develops estimates of physical deterioration and normal functional obsolescence using a simple sliding scale or straight-line calculation and then applies any necessary adjustments for additional functional or economic obsolescence. This method may be used when current representative and adequate sales information is not readily available.
(I) Capitalization of income method. To apply the capitalization of income method, the appraisal staff uses income-based appraisals in place of sales and applies these appraisals to the sales comparison method to develop estimates of total depreciation.

(II) Observed condition method. To apply the observed condition method, the appraisal staff breaks down depreciation into all its various component parts. This method requires detailed analysis of all forms of depreciation and is generally reserved for "model building," special use properties, or when raised by a property owner during the course of an appeal.

(b) Sales comparison approach. When using the sales comparison approach, the appraisal staff shall estimate value by comparing the subject property to similar properties that have recently sold. The appraisal staff shall use the following four steps when applying the sales comparison approach: market research and verification, selecting appropriate units of comparison, making reasonable adjustments based on the market, and applying the adjusted comparison units to the subject of the appraisal.

1. General considerations. The appraisal staff shall consider the following when applying the sales comparison approach:

(i) Bona fide sales preferred. A bona fide sale of a subject property should be carefully analyzed by the appraisal staff to determine if it is an accurate indicator of such subject property’s fair market value. When such a sale is supported by sufficient other sales of similar property to reasonably estimate the market, the appraisal staff shall consider the sale as the best evidence of fair market value. In the absence of such a sale of the subject, sales prices of comparable properties shall be considered the best evidence of fair market value.

(ii) Economic principles affecting approach. When applying the sales comparison approach, the appraisal staff shall rely upon the economic principles of supply and demand, substitution, and contribution. The interaction of supply and demand factors determines property prices. The principle of substitution states that a prudent buyer will pay no more for a property than for a comparable property with similar utility. The principle of contribution as applied to the sales comparison approach means the value of a property component is measured by its contribution to the whole rather than by its cost.

2. Market research and verification. The appraisal staff shall build and maintain an up-to-date file system of qualified sales as provided in Rule 560-11-10-.09(2)(d)(1)(ii). Other preferred information to be considered is the motivations of the buyer and seller, as obtained from actual interviews of the parties to the sales. Adjustments to the sales to be considered by the appraiser include, but are not limited to, time of sale; location; physical characteristics; partial interest not conveyed; trades or exchanges included; personal property included; leases included; incomplete or unbuilt community property; atypical financing; existing covenants; deed restrictions; environmental, economic, governmental and social factors affecting the sale property and the subject parcel. These adjusted qualified sales may then be used to appraise the subject parcel.

3. Market analysis and stratification. The appraisal staff shall analyze the market to identify groups of comparable properties that may be combined in the valuation process. Properties may be combined and classified to reflect use, location, neighborhood, or other comparison criteria that have been shown to reflect the interest of buyers and sellers.

4. Comparable sales analysis. When applying the analysis, the appraisal staff should identify a representative number of comparable properties that have recently sold, apply the adjustments indicated by the market research and verification process to such comparables, and then adjust such comparables for physical differences from the subject property. The appraiser may then develop an estimated value of the subject property from the adjusted sales prices of the comparable properties. This process may be computer assisted in a mass appraisal environment.

5. Sales ratio applications. The appraisal staff shall conduct sales ratio studies to periodically measure the quality of their appraisals relative to the market. Such studies should be designed to measure whether appraisals meet the overall legal standards provided in Rule 560-11-2-.56 and provide more precise analysis of the quality of appraisals within and between market strata used by the appraisal staff to compare properties. When sales ratio studies reveal excessive inequities within a stratum, the appraisal staff should consider reappraising the properties in the stratum. When such studies reveal excessive inequities between strata, and there is acceptable uniformity within the strata, the appraisal staff should consider trending to correct this uniformity problem.

(i) Trending. The appraisal staff shall use the procedures in this subparagraph when applying trend factors to improve uniformity. Stratify properties by property type and neighborhood. Determine the measure of central tendency by computing the median assessment ratio, substituting the aggregate ratio when the properties in the strata tend to be heterogeneous. Then divide the legal assessment ratio by the calculated measure of central tendency to calculate the trend factor. The appraisal staff should not apply trending factors in excess of 1.15. In such instances, the appraisal staff should correct intra-strata differences by reappraising the properties within the affected strata. Before finalizing the application of trending factors, the appraisal staff should calculate the coefficient of dispersion to verify that uniformity among assessments will be improved by trending.

(c) Income approach. When using the income approach, the appraisal staff shall estimate value by determining the present value of the projected income stream from the use of the subject property in the future.

1. Income and expense analysis. The appraisal staff shall analyze the income stream and project a future income stream that reflects typical management and current market conditions.

(i) Components of income and expense analysis. The appraisal staff may consider the following components when performing the income and expense analysis: typical unit rent, potential gross income, miscellaneous income, effective gross income, vacancy and collection loss, typical expenses, replacement reserves, and net operating income. Expenses such as depreciation charges, debt service, ad valorem taxes, income taxes, and business expenses not associated with the property should not be considered. While complete information is not required on each individual property, the appraisal staff should secure sufficient information to develop typical unit rents, typical vacancy and collection loss ratios, and typical expense ratios for various type properties before applying the income approach.

(ii) Analyzing reported data. The appraisal staff may use actual income and expense information when they reflect typical management and current market conditions; otherwise, typical figures should be used. The appraiser may stratify properties and develop typical unit rents, vacancy and collection loss ratios, and expense ratios to evaluate the reasonableness of reported figures for individual properties and to substitute for unreported figures. The appraiser may also use multiple regression analysis to estimate typical rents as a function of such variables as construction quality, age, location, size of building, and other relevant factors. Multiple regression analysis may also be used to estimate typical expense ratios, and other income and expense components. The appraiser should not consider outdated or non-market leases. Percentage leases should be expressed in actual dollar amounts and averaged over a period of years. Periodic expenditures for replacements should be pro-rated over their economic lives.

2. Capitalization methods. The appraisal staff shall use the procedures in this subparagraph to capitalize the income into an estimate of value. The appraisal staff may utilize the following rates while using the income approach and its various methods and techniques. The discount rate is the annual return on the investment in the property. It is a component of a total capitalization rate. The interest rate is the rate of return on borrowed funds. It is a component of the discount rate. The equity yield rate is the annual return on the equity portion of the investment in the property. It is a component of the total capitalization rate in the mortgage equity technique.

(i) Direct capitalization. The appraisal staff shall, when applying this method, use either overall rates or income multipliers. Both require adequate sales data and accurate estimates of potential annual gross income, effective annual gross income, or annual net operating income.

(I) Overall rates. Using the most common version of this method, the appraisal staff develops the annual net operating income of a sample of properties that have sold. The individual annual net operating incomes are divided by the individual sale prices resulting in the individual overall rates. A representative overall rate is then selected from the sample and applied to the subject property by dividing its annual net operating income by the selected overall rate resulting in an estimate of value for the property. The appraisal staff may also employ other techniques to develop an overall rate, such as the weighted land to improvement ratio method; the net income ratio method, and the debt coverage ratio method.

(II) Income multipliers. Using this method, the appraisal staff may use potential gross income, effective gross income, or annual net operating income from a sample of properties that have sold. Individual sale prices are divided by the selected level of income resulting in individual multipliers. A representative multiplier is then selected from the sample and applied to the subject property by multiplying the selected level of income by the multiplier appropriate to the level of income selected resulting in an estimate of value for the property.

(ii) Annuity capitalization. Annuity capitalization may be used to apply the income approach when the subject property is under a long-term lease. The appraisal staff develops capitalization rates for both land and improvements to the land. The appropriate residual technique is selected based on the known value of either land or improvement. The land or improvement value is multiplied by the appropriate capitalization rate, and the result is deducted from the annual net operating income. The remaining residual income to either land or improvement is then capitalized by the appropriate rate resulting in an estimate of value for either land or improvement.

(iii) Sinking fund capitalization. Sinking fund capitalization may be used to apply the income approach when periodic reserves for replacement are set aside in equal amounts, at a safe rate, in order to restore or rebuild the improvements in the future. It is applied in the same manner as annuity or straight-line capitalization.

(iv) Straight-line capitalization. Straight-line capitalization may be used to apply the income approach when the appraisal staff uses straight-line depreciation schedules. It is applied in the same manner as annuity capitalization and sinking fund capitalization.

(v) Discounted cash flow analysis. Discounted cash flow analysis may be used to apply the income approach when the appraisal staff is valuing a lease and the residual value of the property at the end of the lease term. Each year’s income stream is discounted by applying a present-value factor to the cash flow expected for each year. The estimated property value at the end of the lease term is also discounted. The discounted amounts are summed resulting in an estimate of value for the property.

(vi) Mortgage equity analysis. Mortgage equity analysis may be used when the appraisal staff can reliably determine mortgage terms and cash flow and reliably estimate the holding period and the percentage by which the property will appreciate or depreciate over the holding period. The appraisal staff computes a constant annual payment from the interest rate and amortization term and selects an appropriate equity yield rate. The estimated cash flow over the holding period is discounted at the equity yield rate, as is the anticipated selling price of the property. The two discounted amounts are added to the present mortgage balance resulting in an estimate the value for the property.

(vii) Residual capitalization techniques. The appraisal staff may use a residual technique to apply the income approach when either the improvement or land component of the property value can be reliably estimated or documented by sales.

(viii) Building residual technique. The appraisal staff may use a building residual technique when the land value of the subject property is known and documented by comparable sales. The appraisal staff develops the total annual net operating income attributable to the property and develops capitalization rates for land and improvements to the land. The land value is multiplied by the land capitalization rate and the result is deducted from the total annual net operating income. The remaining residual income to the improvement is capitalized using the improvement capitalization rate into an indicator of value for the improvement. This is added to the land value resulting in an estimate of value for the property.

(ix) Land residual technique. The appraisal staff may use this technique when the improvement value is known and documented by current cost figures. It is applied in the same manner as the building residual technique except a residual land income is capitalized into an indication of land value and added to the improvement value resulting in an estimate of value for the property.

(d) Special procedures. The appraisal staff shall observe the special procedures contained in this subparagraph when appraising the described property types.

1. Valuation of common areas. The appraisal staff shall take into account the extent that the fair market value of individually owned units in a residential subdivision, planned commercial development, or condominium also represents the fair market value of any ownership interest in any common area that is conveyed with the individually owned units. When the appraisal staff determines that the fair market value of the common area is included in the fair market value of the individually owned units, the appraisal staff may recommend a nominal assessment of the common area parcel. When the appraisal staff makes such a determination, the fair market value of residual interests not conveyed to the owners of the individually owned units shall be appraised and an assessment recommended to the board of tax assessors.

2. Construction in progress. Construction in progress shall be appraised in the same manner as other similar real property taking into account that there may be little or no physical deterioration on such property and that the fair market value may be diminished due to the incomplete state of construction. The appraisal staff should attempt to value construction in progress by forecasting the future cash flow a project would generate and discounting at a rate that reflects the risk and uncertainty of that cash flow. If the construction in progress is being financed by a lending institution that has established an account from which funds may be drawn by the builder as construction progresses, the appraisal staff may consider the percentage of such funds expended as of January 1 as a possible indication of percentage completion of construction in progress. In the absence of sufficient information to perform such an analysis, the appraisal staff should estimate the percentage of completion of all construction in progress as of January 1 of the tax year using the best information available. The appraisal staff should then estimate the fair market value of the improvement upon completion. The appraisal staff should then estimate the fair market value as of January 1 as being the estimated fair market value upon completion multiplied by the percentage of completion on January 1. If comparable sales information of real property under construction is generally not available and there is no other specific evidence to measure the probable loss of value if the property is sold in an incomplete state of construction, the appraisal staff may multiply the identified total cost of construction by a uniform market risk factor of .75.

3. Assemblage. The county appraisal staff shall not combine multiple rural parcels into a single taxable rural parcel unless all the following have been satisfied: (1) parcels must be contiguous or separated by only a stream, creek, non-navigable river, road, street, highway, railroad or other recognized thoroughfare, (2) parcels must be titled in exactly the same name, (3) parcels must fall entirely within the same taxing district, and (4) parcels that are contiguous but lie in different taxing districts and are otherwise eligible for combination shall be valued in the same manner as the total acreage of the combined parcels would dictate.

(5) Final estimate of fair market value. After completing all calculations, considering the information supplied by the property owner, and considering the reliability of sales, cost, income and expense information, the appraisal staff will correlate any values indicated by those approaches to value that are deemed to have been appropriate for the subject property and form their opinion of the fair market value. The appraisal staff shall present the resulting proposed assessment, along with all supporting documentation, to the board of tax assessors for an assessment to be made by that board.

Chapter 11 PREFERENTIAL ASSESSMENT

560-11-3-.19 Farm Property Preferential Assessment/Application/Covenant Form. *

* This form [See below]

(1) In order for tangible real property to qualify for the preferential assessment provided for in O.C.G.A. Sections 48-5-7 and 48-5-7.1, its primary use must be the good faith commercial production of agricultural products. Such land must be devoted to bona fide agricultural purposes, which as a general rule, contemplates both the usage of multiple acre tracts and an overall pursuit of profit. The mere ownership of multiple acres whose primary use is not the good faith commercial production of agricultural products but is only used in the limited, occasional or sporadic production of agricultural products would not qualify for the preferential assessment.

(2) For purposes of this regulation, the following terms are defined to mean:

(a) "Bona fide agricultural purposes" means the production, as a part of an overall business pursuit engaged in for profit of one or more types of agricultural products including horticultural products, floricultural products, forestry products, dairy products, livestock products, poultry products, apianian products, and any other form of farm product.

(b) "Good faith commercial production" means an overall business pursuit factually and genuinely engaged in for the primary purpose of producing agricultural products for a profit.

(c) "Primary use" means that use which is the principal, chief and leading use or activity to which the property is devoted.

(d) "Storage or processing of agricultural products" means to put or set aside agricultural products for safekeeping or for use when needed or the act or series of acts performed upon agricultural products to transform such products into a different state of condition.

(3) O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7.1 requires the State Revenue Commissioner to annually submit a report to the Governor and General Assembly which, among other things, shows the fiscal impact of preferential assessment and the assessed value eliminated from each county’s digest as a result of such assessment. To aid in the collection of such data for statistical accounting purposes, tangible real property which receives the preferential assessment shall utilize an identification code of A-3 and improvements which are devoted to the storage or processing of agricultural products from or on such property shall utilize an identification code of A-1.

(4) All applications for the preferential assessment of tangible real property devoted to bona fide agricultural purposes as set forth in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7 and O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7.1 as well as the covenant described therein shall be made upon the form adopted by the State Revenue Commissioner for that purpose. Form PT-230 set forth below has been adopted by the Commissioner for said purpose.

AUTHORITY: O.C.G.A. Secs. 48-5-7, 48-5-7.1.

560-11-5-.03 Taxable Timber Sales and Harvests.

(1) Where standing timber is sold by timber deed, contract, lease, agreement, or otherwise to be harvested within a three-year period after the date of the sale and for a lump sum price, the standing timber to be harvested within said three-year period shall be assessed for taxation as of the date of the sale. The tax shall be levied based upon the total lump sum price paid by the purchaser in an arm's length bona fide sale.

(a) Ad valorem taxes shall be assessed as of the date of the sale and shall be payable by the seller who shall remit the amount of the taxes due to the purchaser in the form of a negotiable instrument payable to the tax collector or tax commissioner. The purchaser shall remit the seller's negotiable instrument to the tax collector or tax commissioner within five business days after receipt from the seller along with a report of the sale using form PT-283T or a computer generated form PT-283T as approved by the Commissioner, and the tax collector or tax commissioner shall promptly deliver a receipt to the seller showing the tax has been paid. The purchaser shall be personally liable for the tax if he does not remit the seller's negotiable instrument as required or if he fails to collect the negotiable instrument from the seller and in any event he shall remit the taxes due to the tax collector or tax commissioner within five business days of the date of the sale. With said remittance, a copy of the report form PT-283T or a computer generated form PT-283T as approved by the Commissioner, shall also be furnished by the purchaser to the board of tax assessors.

(b) Any standing timber described in any sale instrument which is not harvested within three years after the date of the sale shall later be assessed for taxation following its future harvest or sale. In the event it is later harvested by the original purchaser, the board of tax assessors shall use the table of values prescribed by the Commissioner in Regulation 560-11-5-.05(1), and the taxes shall be paid by the original purchaser; otherwise, upon its sale or harvest after three years, the procedures for taxation shall be according to the manner in which such timber is sold or harvested.

(c) The ad valorem taxes on lump sum sales shall be paid to the tax collector or tax commissioner prior to and as a prerequisite for the filing for record with the clerk of superior court any instrument conveying the standing timber upon which taxes are due and payable, and no such instrument shall be recorded unless it has entered upon or attached thereto a certificate from the tax collector or tax commissioner showing that the taxes have been paid.

(2) Where standing timber is sold, in an arm's length, bona fide sale, by timber deed, contract, lease, agreement, or otherwise by unit prices, the purchaser shall furnish to the seller and to the board of tax assessors a report form PT-283T or a computer generated form PT-283T as approved by the Commissioner, reflecting the total dollar value paid to the seller as well as the individual volumes of timber harvested identified by timber product classes. The report shall cover all timber harvested through the last business day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter and it shall be furnished to the seller and the board of tax assessors within 45 days after the end of the calendar quarter during which the timber is harvested. A copy of the report PT-283T or a computer generated form PT-283T as approved by the Commissioner shall also be furnished by the seller to the board of tax assessors within 60 days after the end of each calendar quarter.
(a) Ad valorem taxes shall be payable to the tax collector or tax commissioner as specified by Regulation 560-11-5-.04(3) based upon the fair market value of the harvested timber which shall be the total dollar values paid by the purchaser in the arm's length, bona fide sale.

(3) Where standing timber is harvested by the owner of such timber from his own land, the owner shall, within 45 days after the end of the calendar quarter, file with the board of tax assessors a report form PT-283T or a computer generated form PT-283T as approved by the Commissioner of the volumes harvested through the last business day of the calendar quarter.

(a) Ad valorem taxes on owner harvest timber shall be payable to the tax collector or tax commissioner within 45 days after the end of the calendar quarter, based upon the fair market value of the harvested timber which shall be the total dollar values calculated using the average standing timber price schedule specified by Regulation 560-11-5-.05(1).

(4) Every sale and every harvest of standing timber occurring on or after January 1, 1992 that has not been previously taxed shall be a taxable event, with the exception of those sales of standing timber not to be harvested within three years. Where standing timber is sold or harvested (excepting only a sale not for harvest within three years) in any manner which is not a reportable taxable event under these Regulations as a lump sum sale, a unit price sale, or an owner harvest, such timber shall be subject to ad valorem taxation. Any such sale or harvest shall be reported and taxed under whichever provisions of this Regulation is most nearly applicable.

(a) Where, at the time of harvest, the standing timber owner does not own the underlying land and has not acquired such timber under a taxable lump sum or unit price sale, as would be the case where timber has been acquired prior to January 1, 1992, the harvest of such timber shall be a taxable event and shall be treated as an owner harvest, with the exception that the reporting requirement and the payment of taxes due shall be the responsibility of the owner of the standing timber instead of the underlying landowner.

560-11-5-.04 Procedures for Timber Taxation.

(1) Standing timber shall be assessed for ad valorem taxation only once upon its sale or harvest as required by O.C.G.A. 48-5-7.5 and these Regulations. Said tax shall be levied upon the 100% fair market value of such timber as prescribed using applicable millage rates for each taxing jurisdiction.

(2) Where, with respect to any taxable event, the board of tax assessors has reason to believe that the reported sale is other than an arm's length, bona fide sale or that the reported volumes or values of the transaction are incorrect, the board may inquire into the transaction and make corrections to the fair market value of the timber in the same manner as changes to the fair market value of other taxable, tangible property are made. In any such instance, the taxpayer notification procedures, the appeal rights and remedies, and the hearing procedures shall all be accomplished in the same manner that other ad valorem tax assessments and appeals are accomplished.

(3) The tax collector or tax commissioner shall prepare and mail, on a quarterly basis, tax bills for ad valorem taxes due on sales and harvests other than lump sum sales and owner harvests. Except as otherwise provided in these Regulations, such taxes shall be payable by the landowner within 30 days after receipt of the tax bill. For the purpose of this Regulation, receipt of the tax bill shall be presumed to have occurred within one day after the date of mailing for taxpayers who are residents of the county and within three days after the date of mailing for taxpayers who are not residents of the county.

560-11-5-.05 Average Standing Timber Price Schedule.

(1) Within 60 days after the end of each calendar year, the Commissioner shall provide the board of tax assessors of each county with a table of the weighted average prices paid for the various timber product classes in each county or region of the State. In preparing this table of standing timber values, the Commissioner, so far as is reasonable and applicable, shall consider reports received by the Department of prices paid, as well as information prepared by and recommendations received from the Georgia Forestry Commission. The Commissioner may also consider commercially available sources of average sales prices. The most recent table of standing timber values furnished by the Commissioner shall be used by the board of tax assessors to determine the fair market value of harvested timber subject to taxation for taxable events other than taxable lump sum sales or taxable unit price sales. Taxpayer appeals of such determinations by the board of tax assessors shall be made and decided in the same manner as other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made and decided pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.

(2) In addition to the filing with appropriate county authorities of reports of standing timber harvests and sales, purchasers shall, within 45 days after the end of the quarter, file with the Commissioner composite quarterly reports, using form PT-283TQ, of all purchases by county of standing timber by lump sum sales and unit price sales reflecting total volumes and total prices paid for the various timber product classes purchased during the preceding calendar quarter. Such quarterly reports shall not be subject to the penalty provisions of O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7.5. Such quarterly reports shall be subject to the confidentiality provisions of O.C.G.A. Section 48-2-15.

560-11-5-.06 County Digest Timber Supplement.

Where the total property tax digest for any county for tax years 1992 through 1995 is so affected by the new method of ad valorem taxation of standing timber that a supplement to the digest is authorized by O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7.5, the supplemental assessment shall be assessed and taxes shall be levied against the land underlying the standing timber so removed from the digest. The supplemental assessment shall be assessed against each such property in a pro rata manner based upon the value of standing timber on each such property that was removed from the digest.

560-11-6-.04 Applications.

(1) All applications for current use assessment shall be made using forms adopted by the commissioner for that purpose. Forms PT-283A, PT-283E, PT-283R, PT-283S (Rev. 09/06) and applicable questionnaires are hereby adopted and prescribed for use by the applicant seeking current use assessment. The application shall be filed with the board of tax assessors of the county in which the property is located. A board of tax assessors may not require additional information from an applicant for purposes of determining eligibility of property for current use assessment except as otherwise provided in O.C.G.A. § 48-5-7.4 and these regulations. However, the board of tax assessors must consider any additional information submitted by the applicant in support of their application for current use assessment.

(2) In those counties where U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Service soil survey maps are available, it shall be the responsibility of the board of tax assessors to delineate the soil types on the tax records of the applicant's property.

(3) In those counties where the board of tax assessors has not been able to obtain U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Service soil survey maps, the board of tax assessors shall determine the soil types of the applicant's property using the best information available.

(4) Applications for current use valuation provided for environmentally sensitive properties may be filed without certification by the Department of Natural Resources; provided, however, that the specific property is stipulated to be environmentally sensitive. Failure to file such certification with the board of tax assessors within thirty (30) days of the last day for filing the application for current use assessment may result in the application being denied by the board of tax assessors.

(5) Applications for current use valuation provided for constructed storm water wetland conservation use properties shall not be certified as meeting the criteria of bona fide constructed storm-water wetlands of the free-water surface type unless an authorized employee or agent of the local governing authority has inspected the site before, during, and after construction of the storm-water wetland to determine that the property is being used for controlling or abating pollution of surface or ground waters of this state by storm-water runoff or by otherwise enhancing the water quality of surface or ground waters of this state.

(6) Application for conservation use value assessment may be withdrawn prior to the current year's "final assessment" as defined in these regulations.

(7) If a qualified owner has entered into an original bona fide conservation use covenant and subsequently

(b) Such subsequently acquired property may not be subject to another existing current use covenant or preferential assessment.

(c) For the purpose of establishing the entry date of the original covenant, the assessor shall use the January 1st assessment date of the first year for which the original covenant is in effect.

(d) The covenant application for the contiguous acreage to be added to an existing covenant shall be made for the add-on acreage only and shall reference the existing original covenant by parcel number.

(8) When property receiving current use assessment and subject to a conservation use covenant is transferred to a new owner and the new owner fails to apply for continuation of the current use assessment on or before the deadline for filing tax returns in the year following the year in which the transfer occurred, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as evidence that a breach of the covenant has occurred. In such event the board of tax assessors shall send to both the transferor and the transferee a notice of the board's intent to assess a penalty for breach of the covenant. The notice shall be entitled "Notice of Intent to Assess Penalty for Breach of a Conservation Use Covenant" and shall set forth the following information:

(a) the requirement of the new owner of the property to apply for continuation of the current use assessment within thirty (30) days of the date of postmark of the notice;
(b) the requirement of the new owner of the property to continuously devote the property to an applicable bona fide qualifying use for the duration of the covenant;
(c) the change to the assessment if the covenant is breached; and
(d) the amount of penalty if the covenant is breached.

(9) In the event the new owner fails to apply during the period provided for in paragraph (7) of this regulation, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as further evidence the covenant has been breached due to the new owner's lack of qualification or intent not to continuously devote the property to an applicable bona fide qualifying use. In such event the board of tax assessors shall be authorized to declare the covenant in breach and assess a penalty.

(10) When property receiving current use assessment and subject to a conservation use covenant is transferred to an estate or heirs by virtue of the death of a covenant owner, and the estate or heirs fail to apply for a continuation of the current use assessment on or before the deadline for filing tax returns in the year following the year in which the death occurred, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as evidence that a breach of the covenant has occurred. In such event in which case the board of tax assessors shall send to any remaining parties to the covenant, whether the estate or the heirs a notice entitled "Notice of Intent to Terminate a Conservation Use Covenant." The notice shall set forth the following:

(a) the requirement of the estate or heirs to the property currently receiving current use assessment to apply for a continuation of the current use assessment within thirty (30) days of the date of postmark of the notice;
(b) the requirement of the estate or heirs to the property currently receiving current use assessment to continuously devote the property to an applicable bona fide qualifying use for the duration of the covenant; and
(c) the change to the assessment if the covenant is breached.

(11) In the event the estate or heirs fail to apply during the period provided for in paragraph (9) of this regulation, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as further evidence the covenant has been breached due to the estate or heirs' lack of qualification or intent not to continuously devote the property to an applicable bona fide qualifying use. In such event the board of tax assessors shall be authorized to declare the covenant in breach without penalty.

(12) All approved applications for current use assessment shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court in the county where the property is located.
(a) the fee of the clerk of the superior court for recording approved applications shall be paid by the owner of the property with the application for current use assessment.

(b) the board of tax assessors shall collect the recording fee from the applicant seeking current use assessment and such recording fee to be in the amount provided for in Article 2 of Chapter 6 of Title 15 and shall be paid to the clerk of the superior court when the application is filed with the clerk.

(c) if the application for current use assessment is denied, the board of tax assessors shall notify the applicant in the same manner that notices of assessment are given pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-306 and shall return any filing fee paid by the applicant.

(13) At such time as property ceases to be eligible for current use assessment, the owner of the property shall file an application for release of current use assessment with the county board of tax assessors.

(a) The board of tax assessors shall approve the release upon verification that all taxes and penalties have been satisfied.

(b) The board of tax assessors shall file the approved release in the office of the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the original covenant for current use assessment was filed. No fee shall be paid to the clerk of the superior court for recording such release.

560-11-6-.05 Change of Qualifying Use.

(1) During the covenant period the owner may change, without penalty, the use of the property from one qualifying use to another qualifying use, such as from timber land to agricultural land, but such owner shall be required to give notice of any such change to the board of tax assessors on or before the last day for the filing of a tax return in the county for the tax year for which the change is sought. Failure to so notify the board of tax assessors of the change in use may constitute a breach of covenant effective upon the date of discovery of the breach.

(2) When the qualifying use of property receiving current use assessment and subject to a conservation use covenant is changed to another qualifying use and the owner fails to notify the board of tax assessors on or before the deadline for filing tax returns in the year following the year in which the change in use occurred, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as evidence that a breach of the covenant has occurred. In such event the board of tax assessors shall send to the owner a notice of the board's intent to assess a penalty for the breach of the covenant. The notice shall be entitled "Notice of Intent to Assess Penalty for Breach of a Conservation Use Covenant" and shall set forth the following information:

(a) the requirement of the owner of the property currently receiving current use assessment to notify the board of tax assessors of the current qualifying use of the property within thirty (30) days of the date of postmark of the notice;

(b) the requirement of the new owner of the property currently receiving current use assessment to continuously devote the property to an applicable bona fide qualifying use for the duration of the covenant;

(c) the change to the assessment if the covenant is breached; and

(d) the amount of penalty if the covenant is breached.
In the event the new owner fails to respond to the notice provided for in paragraph (2) of this regulation by providing information concerning the change in use of the property to the board of tax assessors, such failure may be taken by the board of tax assessors as further evidence the covenant has been breached due to the owner's lack of response. The board of tax assessors shall be authorized to declare the covenant in breach and assess a penalty.

(4) In those instances where the property owner has duly notified the tax assessors that the use of the property has been changed from one qualifying use to another qualifying use, the board of tax assessors shall re-calculate the current use valuation of the property for said tax year in accordance with the valuation standards and tables prescribed by these Regulations for the new qualifying use. However, the limitation on valuation increases or decreases provided for by O.C.G.A. § 48-5-269 shall be applied to the recomputed valuation as if the owner had originally covenanted the property in the new qualifying use.

(5) In addition to the provisions for property subject to the covenant to lie fallow or idle pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-7.4(p)(2), allowing conservation use property to lie fallow due to economic or financial hardship shall not be considered a change of qualifying use nor a breach of the covenant provided the owner notifies the board of tax assessors on or before the last day for filing a tax return in the county of the land lying fallow and does not allow the land to lie fallow for more than two years within any five-year period.

Authority: O.C.G.A. §§ 48-2-12, 48-5-7.4, 48-5-269.

560-11-6-.06 Breach of Covenant.

(1) If a breach of covenant occurs during a tax year but before the tax rate is established for that year, the penalty for that partially completed year shall be calculated based upon the tax rate in effect for the immediately preceding tax year. However, the tax due for the partially completed year shall be the same as would have been due absent a breach.

(2) If a breach occurs on all or part of the property that was the subject of an original covenant and was transferred in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 48-5-7.4(i), then the breach shall be deemed to have occurred on all of the property that was the subject of the original covenant. The penalty shall be assessed pro rata against each of the parties to the covenant in proportion to the tax benefit enjoyed by each during the life of the original covenant.

(3) The breach shall be deemed to occur upon the occasion of any event which would otherwise disqualify the property from receiving the benefit of current use valuation. The lien against the property for penalties and interest shall attach as of the date of such disqualifying event.

(4) If a covenant is breached by the original covenantor or a transferee who is related to the original covenantor within the fourth degree of civil reckoning, and where such breach occurs during the sixth through tenth years of a renewal covenant, the penalty imposed shall be the amount by which current use assessment has reduced taxes otherwise due for each year in which such renewal covenant was in effect, plus interest at the rate specified in O.C.G.A. § 48-2-40 from the date the covenant was breached.

(5) Before a penalty is assessed, notice shall be provided to the taxpayer by the board of tax assessors that the covenant has been breached. This notice shall include the specific grounds of the breach, provide to the taxpayer notice to cease and desist the alleged breach activity, and notify the taxpayer that they have thirty (30) days to correct the breach.

(6) If the board of tax assessors determines that a breach has occurred and the taxpayer has not corrected the situation within the time limit specified, the taxpayer has the right to appeal the determination of the breach to the board of equalization as provided in O.C.G.A. § 48-5-311.

560-11-6-.07 Valuation of Qualified Property.

Annually, and in accordance with the provisions and requirements of O.C.G.A. 48-5-269, the Commissioner shall propose and promulgate by regulation as specified by the Georgia Administrative Procedure Act, tables and standards of value for current use valuation of properties whose qualifying use is as bona fide conservation use properties. Once adopted by the Commissioner, these tables and standards of value shall be published and otherwise furnished to the boards of tax assessors and shall serve as the basis upon which current use valuation of such qualified properties shall be calculated for the applicable tax year.

(a) Conservation use land shall be divided into two use groups consisting of nine soil productivity classes each. These two use groups shall be agricultural land (crop land and pasture land) and timber land. The Commissioner shall determine the appropriate soil characteristics or site index factors for each of these eighteen soil productivity classes for use as a guide for the assessors. In those counties where the Soil Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture has classified the soil according to its productivity, the Commissioner shall instead prepare and publish a table converting the Soil Conservation Service's codes into the eighteen soil productivity classes.

(b) The state shall be divided into the following areas for the purpose of accumulating the income and market information necessary to determine conservation use values:
1. For the purpose of determining the income of crop land and pasture land, the state shall be divided into an appropriate grouping of the nine crop-reporting districts as delineated by the Georgia Agricultural Statistical Service and which shall be referred to as agricultural districts;
2. For the purpose of determining the income of timber land, the agricultural districts shall be combined into timber zones as follows: agricultural districts #1, #2 and #3 shall compose timber zone #1, agricultural districts #4, #5 and #6 shall compose timber zone #2, and agricultural districts #7, #8 and #9 shall compose timber zone #3;
3. For the purpose of determining the market value of agricultural land and timber land, the state shall be divided into an appropriate grouping of the nine crop-reporting districts as delineated by the Georgia Agricultural Statistical Service. Such areas shall be referred to as market regions.

(c) Sixty-five percent of the conservation use value shall be attributable to the capitalization of net income from the property and this component of total value shall be determined as follows:
1. For crop land, the income valuation increment of the conservation use valuation shall be based on the five-year weighted average of per-acre net income from those major predominant acreage crops harvested in at least 125 counties of Georgia ("base crops"). In making this calculation, the Commissioner, utilizing the latest information either published or about to be published in the Georgia Department of Agriculture’s edition of Georgia Agricultural Facts and the United States Department of Agriculture Economic Research Service’s Costs of Production-Major Field Crops, shall:
   (i) For each year, determine for each of the nine agricultural districts the yield per acre for each of the base crops;
   (ii) For each year, determine for each of the nine agricultural districts the acres harvested of each of the separate base crops and the total acres harvested of all the base crops;

(iii) For each year, determine a state-wide price received per unit of yield for each of the base crops;

(iv) For each year, determine a state-wide cost of production consisting of the typical costs incurred in the production of the base crops, including, but not limited to, the reasonable cost of planting, harvesting, overhead, interest on operating loans, insurance and management;

(v) For each year, using the determinations herein, compute for each of the nine agricultural districts, the weighted net income per acre by summing the results of the computation of each base crop’s net income obtained by multiplying the yield per acre times the percentage of total acreage times the price received and then making a reduction to account for the cost of production;

(vi) Compute for each of the nine agricultural districts, the per acre income valuation by capitalizing the average per acre weighted net income before property taxes, utilizing the rate of capitalization provided for in O.C.G.A. 48-5-269 plus the effective ad valorem tax rate;

2. (i) For pasture land, the income valuation increment of the conservation use valuation shall be based on the five-year weighted average of per-acre rental rates of pasture property. In making this calculation, the Commissioner, utilizing the latest information available, shall:

(ii) Compute for each of the nine agricultural districts, the per acre income valuation by capitalizing the average per acre rental rates weighted by the acreage of hay harvested each year utilizing the rate of capitalization provided for in O.C.G.A. 48-5-269;

3. (i) The income valuation derived for crop land and pasture land shall be combined into the income valuation for agricultural land by calculating and applying a weighted average of all crop and pasture acreage in each agricultural district.

(ii) Using soil productivity data from the Soil Conservation Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, determine productivity influence factors by calculating the relationships between the volumes of corn that will grow on the soils contained within each of the nine productivity classes. Apply these factors to the per acre income valuation of agricultural land to determine the income valuations for each of the nine soil productivity classes.

4. For timber land, the income valuation increment of the conservation use valuation shall be based on the five-year weighted average of per-acre net income from hardwood and softwood harvested in Georgia. In making this calculation the Commissioner shall:

(i) For each timber category and zone, determine for the immediately preceding five years for which information is available, the unit prices received by the sellers of standing timber in Georgia from reports received by the Commissioner of actual sales, from information furnished by the Georgia Forestry Commission, from commercially prepared publications of average sales prices, or from a combination of these sources;

(ii) For each timber category and zone, determine the average volumes of the various types of timber harvested annually in Georgia;

(iii) For each timber category and zone, compute the gross income each year from the harvests of timber by multiplying the unit price for each year times the annual average harvest volumes of each type of timber harvested;

(iv) For each timber zone, determine the acres of softwood timber land and hardwood timber land;

(v) For each timber zone, compute the weighted gross income per acre for each year by dividing the gross income from the harvest of softwoods each year by the acreage of softwood timberland; dividing the gross income from the harvest of hardwoods each year by the acreage of hardwood timberland and weighting the two resulting per acre gross incomes by the percentage of acres of softwood and hardwood timberland to total acres of timberland;

(vi) For each timber zone, determine the costs of production of timber for each year including, but not limited to, the cost of site preparation, planting, seedlings, prescribed burnings, management, marketing costs and ad valorem taxes due on the harvest or sale of timber;

(vii) For each timber zone, determine the acreages of timberland annually receiving production treatments, i.e. site preparation, planting and burning;

(viii) For each timber zone, compute the production expenses per acre incurred each year by multiplying the expense by the appropriate factor, i.e. multiply the cost of site preparation per acre by the percentage of acres annually receiving this treatment, multiply the harvest tax millage by the weighted gross income per acre;

(ix) For each timber zone, compute the net income per acre for each year by subtracting the production expenses incurred during the year from the weighted gross income per acre for that year;

(x) For each timber zone, calculate the per acre income valuation by capitalizing the average per acre net income before property taxes, utilizing the rate of capitalization provided for in O.C.G.A. 48-5-269 plus the effective ad valorem tax rate;

(xi) Determine productivity influence factors by calculating the relationships between the volumes of Loblolly Pine grown on each of the nine productivity classes of soil and apply these factors to the per acre income valuation for the benchmark land, to determine the income valuations for each of the nine soil productivity classes.

(d) Thirty-five percent of the conservation use value shall be attributable to values produced by a market study consisting of sales data from arms length bona fide sales of comparable real property with and for the same existing use. In determining this increment of total value, the Commissioner shall:
1. Gather a statistically valid sample of qualified sales of agricultural and timber properties;
2. Calculate a residual land value for each sale in the sample by adjusting the sales price to remove any portion representing value attributable to any component of the sale other than the land;
3. Utilizing the residual land value sale prices, determine, as far as is practical, the relationships between the average sales price per acre for each of the nine soil productivity classes in each of the market regions.

(e) Environmentally sensitive properties and constructed storm water wetland conservation use properties shall be classified by the board of tax assessors as being within the timber land use group and shall be valued according to the current use value determined for timber land of the same or similar soil productivity class.

(f) The current use value for land lying under water, such as ponds, lakes or streams, shall be the value determined for the lowest productivity level of the predominate adjacent land use.

(g) Land utilized for an orchard or vineyard shall be classified as crop land. The trees, shrubs or vines shall be considered an improvement to the land and separately valued.

(h) Current use valuation for qualified bona fide residential transitional property shall be determined annually by the board of tax assessors by the consideration, as applicable, of the current use of such property, its annual productivity, if any, and sales data of comparable real property with and for the same existing use.

(i) Except as otherwise provided, the total current use valuation for any property, including qualified improvements, whose qualifying use is as bona fide conservation use property for any year during the covenant period shall not be increased or decreased by more than three percent from the current use valuation for the immediately preceding tax year or be increased or decreased during the entire covenant period by more than 34.39 percent from its current use valuation for the first year of the covenant period. The limitations imposed herein shall apply to the total value of all the conservation use property that is the subject of an individual covenant including any improvements that meet the qualifications set forth in O.C.G.A. 48-5-7.4(a)(1); provided, however, that in the event the owner changes the use of any portion of the land, such as from timber land to agricultural land, or adds or removes therefrom any such qualified improvements, the limitations imposed by this subsection shall be recomputed as if the new uses and improvements were in place at the time the covenant was originally entered. This limitation on increases or decreases shall not apply to the current use valuation of residential transitional property.
560-11-6-.08 Appeals.

(1) Applications for current use valuation as conservation use property or residential transitional property provided by O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-7.4 shall be approved or denied by the county board of tax assessors. If the application is denied, the board of tax assessors shall notify the applicant in the same manner that notices of assessment are given pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-306. Such notice shall include the following simple non-technical assessment reason in bold font "CONSERVATION USE COVENANT APPLICATION DENIED." Appeals from the denial of an application shall be made in the same manner, according to the same time requirements, and decided in the same manner that other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.

(2) For the first year of the covenant period the taxpayer shall be notified by the board of assessors of the current use valuation placed on the property for that year. Appeals shall be made and decided in the same manner as other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made and decided pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.

(3) During the covenant period the taxpayer shall be given notification of any change in the current use valuation made by the board of tax assessors for the then current tax year. Appeals shall be made and decided in the same manner as other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made and decided pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.

(4) Appeals regarding the current use valuation of conservation use property under paragraphs (2) and (3) of this regulation may be made contesting the board of tax assessor's initial determination or subsequent change of the qualifying use of the property, the soil classification of any part or all of the qualified property, the valuation of any qualified improvements, the assessment ratio utilized with regard to the qualified property; as well as with regard to any alleged errors that may have been made by the assessors in the application of the tables and standards of value prescribed by the Commissioner. An appeal, however, may not be made to the local board of tax assessors concerning the tables or standards of value prescribed by the Commissioner pursuant to Regulation 560-11-6-.09.

(5) The tax assessors shall continue to notify the taxpayer of any changes to the fair market value of the covenanted property, and such notice shall conform to the provisions of O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-306. A taxpayer desiring to appeal such changes shall do so in the same manner as other assessment appeals are made pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.

(2) If all or part of the tract subject of the original QFLP Covenant is transferred during the covenant period to another qualified owner, and following such transfer the acquiring owner and/or transferring owner cause a breach of the covenant, then:
(a) Any county affected by the breach must seek recovery of penalties and interest from the breaching party by any judicial means including but not limited to; foreclosure of the breaching party's property.
(3) Activities listed in O.C.G.A. § 48-5-7.7(q) shall not constitute a breach of the QFLP Covenant.

The owner of the contiguous tract shall be assessed all penalties and interest resulting from the breach of the QFLP Covenant.

Chapter 16 MOTOR VEHICLE ASSESSMENTS

560-11-2-.22 Motor Vehicle Assessments.

Annually the State Revenue Commissioner shall prepare and publish a manual of motor vehicle assessments for the various types of motor vehicle property in Georgia. In addition the State Revenue Commissioner shall calculate as nearly and completely as is practical the assessed values on motor vehicle prebill applications furnished to the various county tax collectors. In all cases the assessed valuations appearing in the published motor vehicle assessment manual shall be the assessed value of a specific motor vehicle. Provided, however, that when the assessed valuation as calculated on the motor vehicle prebill application for a specific vehicle differs from the assessed valuation for the same vehicle published in the motor vehicle assessment manual by twenty-five dollars ($ 25.00) or less, the county tax collector is authorized to accept the prebill valuation as being correct for that specific vehicle for the current year.

Chapter 17 MOTOR VEHICLE APPORTIONMENT

560-11-7-.01 Purpose of Regulations.

(1) These regulations have been adopted by the Commissioner pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-2-12 in order to promulgate specific policies and procedures of the Department applicable to the administration and collection of ad valorem tax on motor vehicles pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-471 when such motor vehicles are engaged in interstate commerce and subject to apportionment.

(2) This regulation shall apply to all motor vehicles subject to ad valorem taxation for the calendar year beginning January 1, 1995.

560-11-7-.02 Forms.

The Commissioner shall prepare and furnish a form, herewith adopted and designated as PT-95, to be used by all persons seeking apportionment of ad valorem assessments on motor vehicles and trailers used in interstate commerce under this regulation.

560-11-7-.03 When Apportionment Permitted.

(1) Motor vehicles and trailers subject to ad valorem tax under O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-471 may acquire an ad valorem tax situs in states other than Georgia if, pursuant to their use in interstate commerce, such motor vehicles and trailers are used throughout the previous calendar year either along fixed or regular routes or, alternatively, are habitually employed within a non-domiciliary state, albeit upon irregular routes.

(2) Upon a proper showing of such circumstances to the tax authorities for the county where such property is returnable by law, the Georgia fair market value assessed upon such vehicle shall be the value otherwise assessed, multiplied by the "apportionment ratio" set forth in Regulation 560-11-7-.03(3).

(3) The "apportionment ratio" for a particular tax year shall be equal to one (1) minus the ratio of the total miles driven or traversed during the previous calendar year in those states other than Georgia in which the motor vehicle or trailer, as of January 1 of the tax year in question, has acquired an ad valorem tax situs, to the total miles driven or traversed in all states during the previous calendar year. The tax commissioner may use accumulated mileage of the taxpayer's fleet of those vehicles based in Georgia on January 1 of the tax year in question as opposed to individual vehicle mileage to determine the apportionment ratio if the fleet mileage is deemed to fairly and reasonably indicate the correct situs of the value to be apportioned for the specific vehicle being registered in the county.

(4) For purposes of this regulation, "state" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States and any political subdivision of the foregoing jurisdictions.

560-11-7-.04 Procedures.

(1) Any owner seeking apportionment of ad valorem assessments on motor vehicles and trailers used in interstate commerce shall file form PT-95 with the tax commissioner at the time the motor vehicle registration form is submitted.

(2) The tax commissioner shall require the owner seeking apportionment of ad valorem assessments on motor vehicles and trailers to properly complete the form PT-95 which will serve as an affidavit of the correctness of the information. Additionally, the tax commissioner may require accompanying documentation sufficient to demonstrate that the owner’s motor vehicles or trailers have acquired a tax situs in another state. Examples of such documentation may include the following:

(a) Evidence of individual or fleet vehicle mileage records such as those submitted to the Department of Revenue for apportionment of registration fees under the International Registration Plan (IRP);

(b) Evidence that ad valorem taxes were paid to another state with respect to such vehicle if such state imposes an ad valorem tax;

(c) Evidence that highway use or motor fuel taxes were paid to another state with respect to such vehicle;

(d) Evidence that registration fees (apportioned or unapportioned) were paid to another state.

(3) The tax commissioner shall consider the evidence submitted with the form PT-95 and shall make the initial determination as to whether the value of the motor vehicle should be apportioned and shall make the assessment accordingly. The tax commissioner shall enter upon the form PT-95 the amount and date of such assessment. A copy of the form PT-95 shall be furnished to the taxpayer and shall serve as notice of the assessment of the vehicle made by the tax commissioner.

560-11-7-.05 Appeals.

(1) Any owner who contests the apportionment decision of the tax commissioner made pursuant to Regulation 560-11-7-.04(3) may appeal such decision by either filing with the tax commissioner an affidavit of illegality as outlined in Regulation 560-11-7-.05(2) or filing an appeal with the board of tax assessors as outlined in Regulation 560-11-7-.05(3).

(2) The motor vehicle license plate may be obtained without payment of the ad valorem tax, as outlined in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-450, by filing with the tax commissioner an affidavit of illegality to the assessment; and filing either 1) a surety bond issued by a State authorized surety company or 2) a bond approved by the clerk of superior court of the county or 3) a cash bond.

(a) The bond shall be in the amount equal to the tax and any penalties and interest which may be found to be due.

(b) The bond shall be made payable to the tax commissioner.

(c) The affidavit and bond are to be transferred by the tax commissioner immediately to the superior court to be tried as affidavits of illegality are tried in tax cases.

(3) As an alternative to filing an affidavit of illegality, any owner requesting apportionment who contests the value assessment of a motor vehicle may appeal such assessed value in the same manner as other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made and decided pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.
(a) The time allowed for the filing of a written appeal shall be 45 days from the date of the tax commissioner's initial assessment as reflected on the form PT-95, or from the deadline date for the payment of the tax, whichever date occurs first.
(b) The time allowed for the filing of an appeal shall be 30 days rather than 45 days in those counties providing for the collection and payment of ad valorem taxes in installments.
(c) Upon receipt of an appeal, the tax assessors shall immediately notify the tax commissioner that an appeal has been filed by the taxpayer. If the appeal is filed before the payment of the tax, the tax commissioner shall issue a "temporary ad valorem tax bill" for the collection of the ad valorem tax and all tag fees. The temporary ad valorem tax amount shall be based on 85% of the current year's valuation or the previous year's valuation, whichever is higher. Such temporary tax bill shall be accompanied by a notice to the taxpayer that the bill is temporary pending the outcome of the appeal process and also indicate there may be additional tax or refund due based on the resolution of the appeal.
(d) Once a final determination is made of the value on appeal, any interest due on additional tax or payable on a refund is to be made as provided in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311.
(e) Further appeals to the board of equalization and superior court are to be handled as provided in O.C.G.A.
Section 48-5-311.

AUTHORITY: O.C.G.A. Secs. 48-5-269, 48-5-450, 48-5-311.

subject to the following deadlines:

following the calendar year in which such taxes were paid to the commissioner; and
(c) For distribution years 2020 and thereafter, no later than August 1 of the calendar year immediately following the calendar year in which such taxes were paid to the commissioner.

(2) To qualify for the alternative ad valorem tax distribution, each tax jurisdiction shall:
(a) Certify that such jurisdiction is a county, municipality, county school district, or independent school district

(b) Submit to the commissioner a Form PT-38 or its equivalent, along with any other documentation requested by the commissioner, no later than March 31 of each distribution year.

(3) When a qualified tax jurisdiction becomes disqualified for any reason, the commissioner shall distribute the applicable portion of the alternative ad valorem tax proceeds of the disqualified tax jurisdiction among the remaining qualified jurisdictions within the county

(a) The date of purchase shall be used to determine whether the vehicle was purchased or sold on or after March 1, 2013 and accordingly whether the state and local title ad valorem tax fee is due as well as the applicable exemptions from sales and use tax under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48.
(2) Except as otherwise provided by O.C.G.A. § 48-5C-1, any motor vehicle purchased or sold outside of Georgia with its first use in Georgia occurring on or after March 1, 2013 for which a title is issued in this state shall be subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee. Such motor vehicle shall be exempt from sales and use tax as provided under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and shall not be subject to the ad valorem tax as otherwise required under Chapter 5 of Title 48.

(3) Any owner of a motor vehicle purchased in Georgia on or after January 1, 2012 and prior to March 1, 2013 for which a title was issued in this state shall be authorized to opt in such motor vehicle to the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5C-1 at any time beginning March 1, 2013 but prior to January 1, 2014 in accordance with regulation 560-11-14-.04.

(4) A leased or rented motor vehicle which is registered in Georgia on or after March 1, 2013 for which a title is issued in this state shall be subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee. The sales and use tax exemption under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 shall not apply to such motor vehicles. (6) Examples
(a) A person enters into a contract to purchase a motor vehicle from a dealership in Georgia for which the date of purchase is January 15, 2013. The dealership submits the application for certificate of title and registers the vehicle on the purchaser’s behalf. The certificate of title is issued on February 15, 2013. The motor vehicle is not subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. This transaction does not qualify for the sales and use tax exemption under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and would be subject to ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48 because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. Because the date of purchase occurred after January 1, 2012 and prior to March 1, 2013 and a title was issued in this state, the owner is authorized to opt the motor vehicle into the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5C-1 at any time beginning March 1, 2013 but prior to January 1, 2014 in accordance with regulation 560-11-14-.04.

(b) A person enters into a contract to purchase a motor vehicle from a dealership in Georgia for which the date of purchase is February 28, 2013. The dealership submits the application for certificate of title and registers the vehicle on the purchaser's behalf. The certificate of title is issued on March 15, 2013. The motor vehicle is not subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. This transaction does not qualify for the sales and use tax exemption under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and would be subject to ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48 because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. Because the date of purchase occurred after January 1, 2012 and prior to March 1, 2013 and a title was issued in this state, the owner is authorized to opt the motor vehicle into the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5C-1 at any time beginning March 1, 2013 but prior to January 1, 2014 in accordance with regulation 560-11-14-.04.

(c) A person enters into a contract to purchase a motor vehicle from a dealership in Georgia for which the date of purchase is March 1, 2013. The dealership submits the application for certificate of title and registers the vehicle on the purchaser’s behalf. The certificate of title is issued on March 15, 2013. The motor vehicle is subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee because the date of purchase occurred on or after March 1, 2013. This transaction qualifies for the sales and use tax exemption under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and would not be subject to ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48 because the date of purchase occurred on or after March 1, 2013.

(d) An individual who is a resident of Georgia purchases a motor vehicle from a neighbor in Georgia for which the date of purchase is February 15, 2013. The individual submits the application for certificate of title and registers the vehicle. The certificate of title is issued on March 1, 2013. The vehicle is not subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. This transaction would be exempt from sales and use tax as a casual sale pursuant to regulation 560-12-1-.07. This vehicle would be subject to ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48 because the date of purchase is not on or after March 1, 2013. Because the date of purchase occurred after January 1, 2012 and prior to March 1, 2013 and a title was issued in this state, the owner is authorized to opt the motor vehicle into the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5C-1 at any time beginning March 1, 2013 but prior to January 1, 2014 in accordance with regulation 560-11-14-.04.

(e) An individual who is a resident of Georgia purchases a motor vehicle from a neighbor in Georgia for which the date of purchase is March 1, 2013. The individual submits the application for certificate of title and registers the vehicle. The certificate of title is issued on March 15, 2013. The motor vehicle is subject to the state and local title ad valorem tax fee because the date of purchase occurred on or after March 1, 2013. This transaction qualifies for the sales and use tax exemption under O.C.G.A. § 48-8-3 and would not be subject to ad valorem tax under Chapter 5 of Title 48 because the date of purchase occurred on or after March 1, 2013.

Section 48-5-492 and these regulations to secure and display such decal. The notice shall also describe the penalty under O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-493 and Regulation 560-11-9-.11 for failure to properly display such decal.

(3) The county governing authority may appoint an agent authorized under O.C.G.A. Section 15-10-63 to issue citations to owners failing to properly display mobile home decals. Such agent may be a member of the board of tax assessors, a member of the appraisal staff or some other designee suitable to the county governing authority. The county governing authority shall notify the county appraisal staff of the name of the authorized agent within 5 days of the agent's appointment.

(4) Within 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter, or more frequently at the property appraisal staff’s discretion, the property appraisal staff shall forward to the tax commissioner and the authorized agent, if one has been appointed, a list of mobile homes discovered during the quarter, if any, that are not displaying the required mobile home decal. The list shall contain the information set forth in Regulation 560-11-9-.08(1) to enable these officials to locate and identify each mobile home thereon.

(5) The authorized agent, if one has been appointed, upon receipt of the list set forth in this Regulation, shall issue a citation to the owner of each mobile home for which a mobile home decal is not attached. If the authorized agent is a member of the board of tax assessors or the property appraisal staff, the notice required in Section 2 of this Regulation and the citation required in this Section may be issued to the owner simultaneously.

(6) Within 30 days of the date the citation is issued, but not earlier than 15 days from the date the citation is issued, the county shall impose the appropriate fines upon and prosecute the subject of the citation as provided in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-493.

(7) Nothing in this Regulation shall prohibit or limit the county authorities from providing other methods for prosecution of an owner failing under O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-492 and these regulations to secure and display a mobile home decal.

560-11-9-.06 Transporting Mobile Homes.

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to move or transport any mobile home which is required to and which does not have attached and displayed thereon the mobile home decal required by O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-492.
(2) Any person who violates Section 1 of this regulation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be prosecuted as provided in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-493.

560-11-9-.07 Valuation Methods.

(1) Beginning January 1, 1999 and effective for the tax year 1999 and each subsequent tax year, the fair market value of all mobile homes subject to taxation under Article 10 of Chapter 5 of Title 48 shall be determined by the county board of tax assessors in accordance with these regulations. For the tax year 1998, the tax commissioner shall continue to use the procedures as shown in the manual provided by the Commissioner to determine the fair market value of all mobile homes.
(2) The valuation methods employed by the county board of tax assessors shall result in a fair market value, as fair market value is defined in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-2, of each mobile home as of January 1 of the tax year for which the digest is being prepared.
(3) The county board of tax assessors may use any combination of the following when arriving at the value for each mobile home, however, the approach used may not differ substantially from that employed to arrive at the value for a mobile home subject to tax under Article 1 of Chapter 5 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated. For any valuation guides that may be used, the board shall select those most likely to reflect the value of each mobile home as of January 1 and make any further adjustments deemed necessary to arrive at a January 1 valuation.
   (a) The appropriate periodic edition of the National Automobile Dealers Association’s Manufactured Housing Appraisal Guide;
   (b) The appropriate periodic edition of the Marshall & Swift Residential Valuation System; and
   (c) Any other valuation model using commonly accepted appraisal techniques including, but not limited to, quality classes, unit cost, observed obsolescence and value tables for structural additions.

(1) On the tenth day of each month, a county's tax commissioner shall report to the board of tax assessors a list of all mobile homes for which during the preceding month:
(a) Location permits were issued, and
(b) Returns for taxation were sent.
(2) The monthly reporting requirement may be changed by a signed written agreement between the tax commissioner and the board of tax assessors, but shall not be sent less than once per calendar year or later than December 1st.
(a) The list sent by the county's tax commissioner shall contain the following information regarding each mobile home:
(1) Manufacturer, model, and year;

(4) Owner's name and address;
(5) Map and parcel number (if a map and parcel number has previously been assigned by the board of tax assessors);
(6) The mobile home's physical location, street address, lot number, and park name (if applicable and known);
(7) Tax district; and
(8) Assessment (if set by the board of tax assessors).
(3) On or before January 5th of each year, and before the county's digest is submitted to the tax commissioner, a county's board of tax assessors shall meet to receive and inspect the tax returns and location permits for the county's mobile homes that have been reported to the tax commissioner during the preceding twelve months.
(a) If any mobile homes have not been reported or returned to the tax commissioner by January 5th of each year, then the county board of tax assessors shall have the authority to add those mobile homes to the county's digest.
(4) For each mobile home listed in a county's digest, the county's board of tax assessors shall develop a valuation which, in the board's judgment, best represents the fair market value that the mobile home will have as of January 1 of the tax year for which the digest is being prepared.
(a) This valuation shall include any improvements to the mobile home and shall reflect any changes to the value of the mobile home resulting from market changes or physical depreciation as of January 1 of the tax year for which the digest is being prepared.
(5) On or before January 5th of each year, a county's board of tax assessors shall return to the tax commissioner the mobile home digest with the proposed assessments.
(6) The total assessed value of the mobile home digest shall be added to the county's consolidated summary at the time the county's official digest is transmitted to the Revenue Commissioner, or at such other time as the digest is required to be compiled.
(a) The assessed value on the mobile home digest shall be used by the tax commissioner for the purpose of calculating tax bills.
(7) Effective January 1, 1999, when a mobile home is returned for taxation after the mobile home digest has been delivered by the board of tax assessors to the county's tax commissioner, the county's tax commissioner shall, within 10 days of receipt of the return, forward it to the county's board of tax assessors. Within 10 days of receiving the return, the county's board of tax assessors shall assess the mobile home's fair market value and notify the county's tax commissioner of the assessment.
(a) The tax commissioner shall then bill the owner pursuant to Regulation 560-11-9-.10.
(b) The owner of the mobile home shall be afforded an opportunity to appeal and receive a temporary bill.

560-11-9-.09 Appeals.

(1) A mobile home owner who disagrees with the county board of tax assessor's assessment of their mobile home(s) on the ad valorem property tax bill may challenge such assessment by either electing to:
(a) Appeal the assessed value of the mobile home in the same manner as other ad valorem tax assessment appeals are made and decided pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-311 as follows:
1. Filing a notice of appeal with the county's board of tax assessors within 45 days of date printed on the ad valorem property tax bill, or by April 1st, whichever occurs later.
2. After an appeal has been filed, the county's board of tax assessors shall notify the county's tax commissioner within 10 days of said appeal. A temporary tax bill, like those in O.C.G.A. § 48-5-311 (E)(6)(d)(iii)(I), shall be issued for every mobile home which is on appeal. A mobile home owner shall pay their temporary tax bill by April 1, if the appeal is not yet resolved, or upon receipt, if temporary tax bill is issued after April 1. Upon payment of temporary tax bill, the county's tax commissioner shall issue a mobile home location permit. Nothing in this Regulation shall prevent the county's tax commissioner from assessing penalties and interest against a mobile home owner who receives a temporary tax bill after April 1 because said owner failed to return their mobile home by April 1.
3. Once there is a determination regarding the appeal, the county's board of tax assessors shall, within 10 days, notify the county's tax commissioner of the final assessment established by such appeal. If necessary, the county's tax commissioner shall then, within 10 days, bill the taxpayer for any additional ad valorem property taxes due or issue a refund, if there has been an overpayment of taxes.
(b) Secure a location permit for the year in question by filing with the county's tax commissioner an affidavit of illegality and by filing either 1) a surety bond issued by a State authorized surety company or 2) a bond approved by the clerk of superior court of the county or 3) a cash bond, pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-450.
(2) If the owner of a mobile home, subsequent to paying the tax without having filed an appeal or affidavit of illegality, believes that the tax has been illegally or erroneously assessed and collected, then the owner may file with the county governing authority a request for a refund. Such request may be filed within three years of the date of payment of the tax under the provisions of O.C.G.A. § 48-5-380.
(a) Only errors of fact or law which have resulted in erroneous or illegal taxation shall be considered. A mobile home owner's claim based on mere dissatisfaction with an assessment shall not constitute that the assessment was erroneous or illegal within the meaning of O.C.G.A. § 48-5-380.

Authority O.C.G.A. Secs.48-5-311, 48-5-380, 48-5-442, 48-5-450.
560-11-9-.10 Collection of Tax.

(1) It shall be the duty of the tax commissioner to issue tax bills using form PT-40 to each owner of a mobile home appearing on the mobile home digest on or after January 1 of each calendar year, but not later than February 1.
(2) Reserved.
(3) Ad valorem taxes imposed on mobile homes shall be based on the assessments as determined from the procedures shown in the manual provided by the Commissioner for the tax year 1998 and as determined by the board of tax assessors pursuant to Regulation 560-11-9-.07 for tax year 1999 and thereafter, and the mill rate levied by the taxing authority on tangible property for the previous calendar year.
(4) The tax commissioner shall collect all ad valorem taxes imposed on mobile homes irrespective of the tax authority levying the taxes. No other official shall be authorized to collect such taxes.
(5) The tax commissioner collecting the ad valorem taxes on mobile homes shall remit to the tax authority imposing the tax such sums as have been collected, less the commissions, on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month of collection, or on a more frequent basis at the tax commissioner's election.
(6) The tax commissioner shall withhold from each taxing authority commissions on all net ad valorem tax collections made for the jurisdiction on mobile homes during any calendar year. Such commissions shall be withheld as prescribed in O.C.G.A. Section 48-5-447 and, along with any fees collected, shall be retained by the tax commissioner or disposed of in accordance with those general laws and local Acts specifically providing for the disposition of such fees and commissions.

560-11-9-.11 Penalties.

(1) Every owner of a mobile home subject to these regulations, in addition to the ad valorem tax due on the mobile home, shall be liable for a penalty of 10 percent of the tax due or $5, whichever is greater, for their failure to make the return or pay the tax by April 1 of each year.
(2) Reserved.
(3) Every owner of a mobile home located in a county on January 1 and subject to these regulations, in addition to the ad valorem tax due on the mobile home, if applicable, and the penalty, if applicable, for failure to make the return or pay the tax by April 1 of each year, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if they fail to secure, attach and display on a mobile home the decal that is required by Regulation 560-11-9-.04. Upon conviction thereof, the owner shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $300.00, except that upon receipt of proof of purchase of a decal prior to the date of the issuance of a summons, the fine shall be $50.00 provided, however that in the event such person owns more than one mobile home in an individual mobile home park, the maximum fine under this paragraph for such person with respect to such mobile home park shall not exceed $1,000.00. The county governing authority may, by local ordinance, provide for penalties for owners who locate a mobile home in the county after January 1 and fail to secure, attach and display on a mobile home the decal that is required by Regulation 560-11-9-.04.
(4) Any person who moves or transports a mobile home which is required to and which does not have attached and displayed thereon the decal required by Regulation 560-11-9-.04 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200.00 nor more than $1,000.00 or by imprisonment for not more than 12 months, or both.
(5) The tax commissioner may issue executions for nonpayment of mobile home taxes in the manner prescribed in Georgia Code Section 48-3-3. The collection of such executions shall follow the procedures prescribed in Chapter 3 of Title 48 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated. Such executions shall bear interest at the rate prescribed by Georgia Code Section 48-2-40 once issued.

560-11-9-.12 Notice of Right to Appeal Mobile Home Valuation.

Any proposed assessment or ad valorem property tax bill sent to an owner of a mobile home(s), by a county's board of tax assessor, shall contain the following sentence in bold: "If you feel that your mobile home's value is too high for ad valorem taxation purposes, you should file an appeal or tax return with County Board of Tax Assessors for an opportunity to have your mobile home's value reduced."

Chapter 20 PROPERTY TAX CREDIT

560-11-2-.37 Property Tax Credit -- Ad Valorem Tax Bills. Amended.

Beginning with the tax year 1975, each county tax commissioner or collector shall prepare and furnish to each taxpayer owing State, County or County School taxes a tax bill showing the total amount of such taxes levied for the current tax year, the dollar amount of property tax credit computed for the taxpayer, the net amount of such taxes due by the taxpayer for the current year, the amount of the total property tax relief grant authorized to the county not credited to taxpayers under the terms of the Act of the General Assembly, a statement that the tax credit is a result of the passage of the Act of the General Assembly, and a statement of the taxpayer claiming his entitlement to the credit and certifying that all credits claimed do not exceed $1,000. Appropriate standard tax bill forms shall be furnished by the State Revenue Commissioner. Provided, however, that any county tax commissioner or collector desiring to prepare and furnish tax bill forms other than the standard form furnished by the State Revenue Commissioner is hereby authorized to do so provided the form actually used reflects the information required herein, including the taxpayer certification form, and provided the tax commissioner or collector receives prior written approval from the State Revenue Commissioner before such forms are used. In those instances where county property taxes are authorized by law to be paid to the tax collector or commissioner in installment payments, the property tax relief provided for herein shall be calculated and shown as a credit against the last installment of county property taxes owed for the current year. In those instances where the county property taxes are paid to the county tax collector or commissioner by a mortgagee (lender) for its borrowers, the mortgagee (lender) may make the required certification to the tax collector or commissioner on behalf of its borrowers at the time the taxes are paid for the current tax year. Such certifications made by mortgagees (lenders) shall be in a form acceptable to the tax collector or tax commissioner. Provided, however, that under the terms of the Act granting such credits and under the terms of this Regulation, the responsibility of the mortgagee who pays taxes on behalf of its borrowers extends only to making the certification on behalf of its borrowers at the time the taxes are paid as required herein, and the responsibility for the correctness of such certification on behalf of individual taxpayers rests with the taxpayers.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on May 17, 1973; effective June 6, 1973. AMENDED: Filed June 11, 1975; effective July 1, 1975.

560-11-2-.38 Property Tax Credit -- Calculation. Amended.

(1) Each year, on or before June 1, the State Revenue Commissioner shall furnish to the governing authority of each county and to the tax commissioner or collector of each county, from information certified to him by the several county tax receivers and tax commissioners, the total amount of property tax relief funds allocated to that particular county for the current tax year as authorized by Act of the General Assembly, and that portion of such total amount of property tax relief funds, allocated to that particular county for the current tax year, to be used for homestead credit purposes as authorized by Act of the General Assembly.
(2) Once the county tax digest has been compiled for the current year as required by law, the governing authority of each county shall determine the appropriate tax rate to be levied for county general operations as is normally done.
(3) Once the county tax digest has been approved by the State Revenue Commissioner for the current year as required by law, the county tax collector or tax commissioner shall calculate the appropriate tax credits as follows:

(a) Determine the amount of property tax credit authorized against county ad valorem property taxes for each "homestead" tangible property located within the county, which credit shall equal an amount computed by dividing the grant authorized for homestead purposes for the county by the number of homesteads in the county for the current year; provided, however, that no credit authorized as homestead relief shall exceed one-half of the credit recipient's county government maintenance and operation tax liability.

(b) Determine the total amount of property tax relief credited against county ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes for all "homestead" property within the county.

(c) The amount of property tax relief authorized for homestead purposes for the county in excess of the amount calculated in accordance with subparagraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of this Section shall be used as a pro rata property tax credit against the ad valorem county maintenance and operation property taxes on all tangible property subject to taxation in the county for the current tax year, except motor vehicles and trailers, and except that property required by law to be returned to the State Revenue Commissioner.

(d) The county-wide pro rata property tax credit shall be calculated as a percentage of county government maintenance and operation taxes levied, which percentage shall be computed by dividing the total amount of property tax relief funds available for distribution to the county after deducting the total amount of property tax relief granted by the "homestead" property tax credits under subparagraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of this Section by the total taxes levied against tangible property authorized to receive credit for general county purposes after the "homestead" property tax credits have been deducted. The percentage thus derived shall be applied against the total county maintenance and operation taxes levied for each property for general county tax purposes after deduction for any "homestead" property tax credit, if any, to which the taxpayer may be entitled; provided, however, that no credit claimed in any county, or combination of credits claimed in all counties wherein the taxpayer owns property, shall exceed the lesser of $1,000 or the credit recipient's total tax liability for county government ad valorem maintenance and operation property taxes; further provided, that where a taxpayer cannot claim entitlement to any or all of the credit calculated for a particular county because of the total credit maximum state wide, the taxpayer shall certify to the tax collector or commissioner in a form acceptable to the tax collector or commissioner in that county the amount of the credit, if any, to which he is entitled.

(e) Determine the total amount of property tax relief credited pro rata against county government ad valorem maintenance and operation taxes within the county.

(f) All property tax credits authorized shall be calculated based upon the tax digest for the current tax year approved by the State Revenue Commissioner as required by law. Any property not returned for taxation as required by law which is assessed by the board of tax assessors after the digest for the current year has been approved by the State Revenue Commissioner shall not be entitled to such property tax credits for the current year. Provided, however, that when the assessment of any property is under appeal at the time the digest is approved by the Commissioner and the assessment is not yet finalized for the current year, that property shall be considered by the county at the value assessed by the board of tax assessors when making the property tax relief calculations required by law and in accordance with this Regulation. If the final determination of the assessed value of such property results in an assessment higher than that of the board of tax assessors, the additional property tax credits shall be granted to the taxpayer. If the final determination of the assessed value of such property results in an assessment lower than that of the board of tax assessors, the excess property tax credits calculated for said property shall become county funds and shall be retained by the governing authority of the county.

(g) All property tax credits authorized but not distributed due to erroneous or duplicate assessments or other errors whereby assessments are subsequently removed from the digest approved by the State Revenue Commissioner for the current year shall become county funds and shall be retained by the governing authority of the county, and any excess of the total grant authorized but not utilized after complete compliance with the terms of the Act shall become county funds and shall be retained by the governing authority of the county.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on May 17, 1973; effective June 6, 1973. AMENDED: Filed June 11, 1975; effective July 1, 1975.

560-11-2-.39 Property Tax Credit -- Reports. Amended.

(1) Beginning with the tax year 1975, the governing authority of each county shall, prior to the time the tax bills for the current year are furnished to the taxpayers of the county, certify to the State Revenue Commissioner on a form to be furnished by the State Revenue Commissioner the total amount of property tax relief credited against county ad valorem property taxes for all "homestead" property located within the county calculated in accordance with subsections 3(a) and (b) of Regulation No. 560-11-2-.38, the total amount of pro rata property tax relief credited against ad valorem county property taxes on all tangible property, except motor vehicles and trailers, and except property required by law to be returned to the State Revenue Commissioner, located within the county calculated in accordance with subsection (3) (d) of Regulation No. 560-11-2-.38, the amount of the total grant authorized to the county not credited under the terms of the Act of the General Assembly and that the calculations of the individual taxpayers' tax relief credits against county government maintenance and operation taxes have been made in strict compliance with the provisions of the Act and the Regulations adopted pursuant thereto.
(2) The State Revenue Commissioner shall not authorize the appropriate State fiscal officer to disperse property tax relief grant funds authorized by Act of the General Assembly to any county until the certification required in Subsection (1) of this Section has been received and approved.

ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY: Original Rule was filed on May 17, 1973; effective June 6, 1973. AMENDED: Filed June 11, 1975; effective July 1, 1975.

(f) "Homeowner tax relief credit" means the amount applied to reduce the otherwise applicable tax liability on a qualified homestead on a dollar-for-dollar basis, but shall not in any case exceed the amount of the otherwise applicable tax liability on a qualified homestead after the granting of all applicable constitutional homestead exemptions and millage rollbacks.

Local billing authority means the municipal fiscal authority when the taxes that are eligible for the homeowner tax relief credit are collected by such municipal fiscal authority.

(h) "Maximum eligible credit" means the homeowner tax relief credit amount that results when the eligible assessed value of a qualified homestead is multiplied times the applicable state, county, and school millage rates.

(i) "Municipal fiscal authority" means the person authorized to collect taxes for a local independent school system. This would be the county tax commissioner in a county that has contracted with a local independent school system to collect taxes, otherwise it is a person authorized by a local independent school system to collect taxes on behalf of such system.

(j) "Municipal millage rate" means the net ad valorem tax millage rate, after deducting applicable rollbacks, levied by a municipality for maintenance and operations purposes and applying to a qualified homestead, but shall not include any ad valorem tax millage rate levied for purposes of bonded indebtedness or any ad valorem tax millage rate levied within a special tax district that was not created or reported on the 2004 ad valorem tax digest certified to and received by the State Revenue Commissioner on or before December 31, 2004.

School millage rate means the net ad valorem tax millage rate, after deducting applicable rollbacks, levied by or on behalf of a local school system for school maintenance and operations purposes and applying to a qualified homestead. School millage rate shall not include any ad valorem tax millage rate levied for purposes of bonded indebtedness or, in the case of local independent school systems, the school millage rate shall not include any millage rate levied by the municipality for purposes other than the maintenance and operation of such independent school system.

(m) "School millage rate" means the net ad valorem tax millage rate levied annually by the Governor with the assistance of the State Revenue Commissioner pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-8.
(2) In each year that the General Assembly provides for homeowner tax relief grants, the local billing authority shall determine the individual homeowner tax relief credit to appear on each tax bill they prepare for a qualified homestead. The total amount of credit to be allowed each such taxpayer shall be determined as follows:

(a) The maximum state homeowner tax relief credit shall be determined by multiplying the eligible assessed value of the qualified homestead by the state millage rate.

(b) The state tax liability shall be determined by multiplying the net assessed value after deducting all constitutional homestead exemptions by the state millage rate.

(c) The state homeowner tax relief credit shall be the lower of the maximum state homeowner tax relief credit or the state tax liability computed in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph.

(d) The county homeowner tax relief credit shall be determined by repeating subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph substituting the county millage rate for the state millage rate and then selecting the lower of the maximum county homeowner tax relief credit or the county tax liability.

(e) The school homeowner tax relief credit shall be determined by repeating subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph substituting the school millage rate for the state millage rate and then selecting the lower of the maximum school homeowner tax relief credit or the school tax liability.

(f) The total homeowner tax relief credit shall be determined by adding together the state, county, and school homeowner tax relief credits as determined in subparagraphs (c), (d) and (e) of this paragraph.

(g) The municipal homeowner tax relief credit shall be determined by repeating subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph substituting the municipal millage rate for the state millage rate and then selecting the lower of the maximum municipal homeowner tax relief credit or the municipal tax liability.

(h) The credit allowed the taxpayer may be reduced to 85 percent of the amount that would ordinarily be due if the property is still under appeal at the time the bills are computed. When the appeal is resolved, the taxpayer’s credit shall be adjusted accordingly.

(3)(a) For any owner of a qualified homestead who would, absent the homeowner tax relief credit, have an ad valorem tax liability on such homestead, the local billing authority or municipal fiscal authority shall be required to prepare and furnish a tax bill in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph. Such bill shall be prepared even if there is no remaining tax liability after the credit has been applied. Such tax bill shall include the following information:

1. The total amount of homeowner tax relief credit, labeled "HTRG Credit" on the bill; and
2. A prominent notice in substantially the following form:
"The HTRG Credit' reduction shown on your bill is the result of homeowner tax relief enacted by the Governor and the General Assembly of the State of Georgia."

(b) Any homeowner tax relief credit allowed a taxpayer shall be shown on the digest extension where the net tax due is shown.

(4)(a) Immediately following the actual preparation of ad valorem property tax bill amounts the tax commissioner shall provide to, if not previously provided to, the State Revenue Commissioner a copy of the digest in a computer readable format acceptable to the State Revenue Commissioner. Such copy shall contain either the following information, or information acceptable to the Commissioner from which the following information may be determined for each qualified homestead:

7. The separate amounts of state, county and school homeowner tax relief credit allowed the taxpayer.
   (b) The local billing authority shall also certify to the Commissioner on forms provided by the Department the following information:
   1. The total number of qualified homesteads;
   2. The county millage rate and school millage rate;
   3. The total amount of homeowner tax relief credits actually allowed on the tax bills for the current tax year; and
   4. The net amount of homeowner tax relief credits allowed taxpayers for any prior year's tax digest, when such credits have not been previously certified. Such net amount shall be determined by deducting any homeowner tax relief credits determined to have been illegally or erroneously allowed taxpayers from any homeowner tax relief credits determined to have been illegally or erroneously denied taxpayers. Such net amount shall be accompanied by an itemized listing containing the information required in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph along with a brief explanation of the basis for each adjustment.

   (c) For those counties providing for the collection and payment of taxes in installments, the certification required in this paragraph shall be made immediately following the preparation of ad valorem tax bills for each installment. If only one bill is prepared showing the several installments, then such certification shall be made immediately following the preparation of such bill.

   (d) For those counties issuing ad valorem tax bills under temporary collections pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 48-5-310, the certification required in this paragraph shall be made immediately following the preparation of ad valorem tax bills for the temporary billing. The final certification shall be made immediately following the preparation of ad valorem tax bills for the final billing.

   (e) For the purposes of this paragraph, the actual preparation of the tax bill amounts means those steps and calculations necessary for the local billing authority to definitively determine the amount of homeowner tax relief credit due each qualified homestead and the total of such credits. The bills are not required to be actually printed or mailed before the certification required by this paragraph may be made to the Commissioner.

(5) Within 60 days of receipt of the certification required by paragraph (4)(b) of this Rule, the State Revenue Commissioner shall remit to the local billing authority the homeowner tax relief grants for the state, county and school system based on the amounts certified in subparagraph (4)(b)3. and subparagraph (4)(b)4. of this Rule, unless during that time the State Revenue Commissioner determines the certification to be in error. In such an event, the State Revenue Commissioner shall require the local billing authority to provide a corrected certification and the time allowed for the State Revenue Commissioner to make the remittance shall begin anew.

(6) The local billing authority shall distribute, after deducting appropriate commissions, the homeowner tax relief grants to the state, county, school system, and municipality as if such grants represented ad valorem taxes collected directly from the taxpayers.

(7)(a) The local billing authority shall recover any credit that is erroneously or illegally granted in the same manner as other delinquent ad valorem taxes are collected. The local billing authority shall maintain a separate ledger or bank account entitled "Homeowner Tax Relief Credit Adjustments Account" to account for any homeowner tax relief credits that have been determined to have been illegally or erroneously granted and that have been withheld or recovered from taxpayers.

(b) The local billing authority shall allow a taxpayer a homeowner tax relief credit when it is determined that such credit has been illegally or erroneously denied such taxpayer on the current year's tax digest. The local billing authority shall be further authorized, to the extent there are funds available in the Homeowner Tax Relief Credit Adjustments Account, to distribute such allowed credits in accordance with paragraph (6) of this Rule. When there are insufficient funds available in such account to distribute such allowed credits, the local billing authority shall not be required to distribute such credits in accordance with paragraph (6) of this Rule until such time as additional homeowner tax relief grants for this specific purpose are appropriated by the General Assembly and distributed by the State Revenue Commissioner to the local billing authority.

(c) Any balance in the Homeowner Tax Relief Credit Adjustments Account shall be certified by the local billing authority in accordance with subparagraph (4)(b)(4). of this Rule, and shall be deducted by the State Revenue Commissioner from the current year's homeowner tax relief grant distribution made in accordance with paragraph (5) of this Rule. The local billing authority shall then transfer such balance to his or her regular tax collection accounts to be added to the balance of the current year's homeowner tax relief grants, when received from the State Revenue Commissioner, and distributed in accordance with paragraph (6) of this Rule.

Chapter 23 MUNICIPAL PROPERTY TAX INSTALLMENTS

(1) Except as otherwise authorized by the State Revenue Commissioner as provided by law, any municipal corporation in this State located in any county whose annual tax digest for the current year has not been prepared and approved by the State Revenue Commissioner when such municipal corporation normally sends ad valorem tax bills to its taxpayers and begins collection of the annual taxes due is hereby authorized to collect taxes due in the following manner:

(a) The municipal corporation must, by appropriate action of the governing authority, adopt a method of paying ad valorem taxes for the current year in two or more installments.

(b) The municipal corporation must use as the basis of taxation for all installment payments so adopted, except the final installment, the valuation for the property as finally determined for State and county tax purposes for the preceding tax year.

(c) The municipal corporation must use as the basis of taxation for the final installment for the current year, the valuation as finally determined and approved by the State Revenue Commissioner for State and county tax purposes for the current tax year. Taxes due on the final installment shall be adjusted to reflect total tax liability to the municipal corporation for the property based upon the county valuation of the property and the municipal corporation tax rate for the current tax year after credit has been given for estimated taxes paid previously on such property. Should the estimated taxes previously paid on such property under the installment method adopted exceed the total tax liability for the current year, the excess payment shall be refunded by the municipal corporation.

(2) Nothing contained in this Regulation shall be deemed or construed to impose any liability for the payment of any such ad valorem taxes upon any person, firm or corporation for property which was not owned on the first day of January of the applicable tax year.

(b) Buyer’s Information - The form shall contain complete name, street mailing address, city, state zip code of the buyer for the purpose of receiving tax notices and billings. (d) Value and Tax Information - The actual value of the consideration received by the seller for the real and personal property conveyed to the buyer shall be shown separately on the form (PT-61) prescribed in subsection (c) of Code section 48-6-4. If the actual value of the consideration is not known, the estimated fair market value of real and personal property conveyed should be shown, separately, along with an estimate of the value of the personal property conveyed. The amount of any lien or encumbrance prior to the transfer and not removed thereby shall be shown.

1. The actual consideration or the fair market value, if the actual consideration is not readily determinable, of the real property conveyed less any liens or encumbrances existing prior to the sale and not removed by the sale shall be the basis upon which the tax is computed. The phrase "ten dollars and other valuable consideration" or other similar phrases are not proper disclosures of consideration. This basis shall be shown along with the tax due.

2. The actual consideration of personal property conveyed shall be shown separately on the form and may be deducted from the basis upon which the tax is computed if the estimate of personal property is accompanied by appropriate evidence of its accuracy.

(f) Certification - The seller or seller’s authorized agent shall certify that all the items of information entered on the transfer form PT-61 are true and correct (to the best of his knowledge and belief) and that he is aware that the making of any willful false statement of material facts will subject him to the provision of the penal law relative to the making and filing of false instruments.

1. The buyer or buyer’s authorized agent shall acknowledge that, by law, he is required to file a timely property tax return on all improved and unimproved real property subject to tax on January 1. The buyer or buyer’s authorized agent further acknowledges that the property described on form PT-61 has not been subdivided or improved during the year of the transfer and if no tax return is filed, he will be deemed to have returned it at the same valuation as was finally determined for the year in which the transfer took place.

2. By filing the form PT-61, the buyer is not relieved from the responsibility of filing a new timely return where the property transferred has been split from an existing property or where there have been substantial changes or new improvements to the property, nor would the filing of the form PT-61 relieve the buyer from filing an application for homestead or other exemptions to which he may be entitled.

(2) The properly completed form PT-61 shall accompany all deeds, instruments or other writings when these writings are presented to the Clerk for recording with the exception of the following types of instruments:

(a) Security deed instruments;

This report verifies and is attached to the PL-170 forms filed. This report, together with all PL-170 forms, must be filed by March 1.

560-11-8-.01 Purpose of Regulations.

These regulations have been adopted by the Commissioner pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-2-12 in order to promulgate specific policies and procedures of the Department applicable to the administration and collection of intangible recording tax pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 48-6-60. These regulations are administrative regulations applicable to a class of instruments within the meaning of O.C.G.A. Section 48-6-71 and, as contemplated by such section, shall constitute a determination of the Commissioner with respect to each such class of instruments described herein and may be relied upon as such.

560-11-8-.02 Tax Payment and Rate.

An intangible recording tax is due and payable on each instrument securing one or more long-term notes at the rate of $1.50 per each $500.00 or fraction thereof of the face amount of all notes secured thereby in accordance with O.C.G.A. Section 48-6-61 and these regulations. This tax is assessed on the security instrument securing one or more long-term notes secured by real property, to be paid upon the recording thereof, and must be paid within 90 days from the date of the instrument executed to secure the note or notes. The maximum tax on a single security instrument is $25,000.

560-11-8-.03 Definitions.

(1) "Collecting officer" means the tax collector or tax commissioner of the county; provided, however, that in each county of this state having a population of 50,000 or more according to the United States Decennial Census of 1990 or any future such census, collecting officer means the Clerk of Superior Court of the county.

(2) "Instrument" or "security instrument" means any written document presented for recording for the purpose of conveying or creating a lien or encumbrance on real estate for the purpose of securing a long-term note secured by real estate.

(3) "Long-term note secured by real estate" shall mean any note representing credits secured by real estate by means of mortgages, deed to secure debt, purchase money deeds to secure debt, bonds for title, or any other form of security instrument, when any part of the principal of the note falls due more than three years from the date of the note or from the date of any instrument executed to secure the note and conveying or creating a lien or encumbrance on real estate for such purpose.

(4) "Short-term note secured by real estate" shall mean any note which would be a long-term note secured by real estate were it not for the fact that the whole of the principal of the note falls due within three years from the date of the note or from the date of any instrument executed to secure the note.

(a) A short-term note is reported as of January 1 of each year, as intangible personal property on Form PL-159 and taxed at the rate of 10 cents per thousand.

(b) A short-term note remains classified as short-term according to its terms, as long as it remains outstanding, although the indulgence of the creditor allows it to extend beyond a three year period.

(c) A renewal note in payment of an existing short-term note is to be classified according to its own terms as to whether it is short-term or long-term.

(d) A short-term note, with option to renew or extend by the borrower, where any part of the principal or interest of the note becomes due or may become due more than three years from execution is classified as long-term.

(e) A "bona fide demand note" is always a short-term note according to its terms; provided however, that a note denominated as a "demand" note where the maturity date as determined from the instrument extends or may extend beyond three years, is nevertheless a long-term note. For purposes of this regulation, a "bona fide demand note" is a note payable unconditionally on demand whose maturity date is not determined by any contingency other than the demand of the holder.

(f) A note which matures the same month and date as executed only three (3) years later, is a short-term note.

560-11-8-.04 Modification.

Intangible recording tax is not required to be paid on any instrument that modifies by extension, transfer, assignment or renewal, or gives additional security for an existing note, when the intangible recording tax has been paid on the original instrument or the original note or holder of the original instrument was exempt.

560-11-8-.05 Refinancing.

(1) Intangible recording tax is not required to be paid on that part of the face amount of a new instrument securing a long-term note secured by real estate which represents a refinancing by the original lender and original borrower of unpaid principal of an existing instrument securing a long-term note secured by real estate still owned by the original lender, if the intangible recording tax was paid on the original instrument or the original holder of the instrument was exempt.

(a) The new instrument must contain a statement of what part of the face amount represents a refinancing of unpaid principal. This information must be disclosed on the face of the instrument or in the alternative may be submitted in the form of an affidavit indicating which part of the face amount represents a refinancing of unpaid principal.
(2) Where two or more instruments securing long-term notes, secured by separate deeds to secure debt and held by the original borrower and the original lender, are consolidated, with no new money advanced, into a single instrument securing a long-term note with a single deed to secure debt, intangible recording tax is due, up to the statutory maximum, on that portion of the indebtedness secured by the new instrument, if any, that does not represent unpaid principal on the consolidated notes.

(3) Where instruments securing long-term and short-term notes, secured by separate deeds to secure debt and held by the original borrower and the original lender, are consolidated, with no new money advanced, into a single instrument securing a long-term note with a single deed to secure debt, intangible recording tax is due, up to the statutory maximum, on that portion of the indebtedness secured by the new instrument, if any, that does not represent unpaid principal on the long-term note or notes.

560-11-8-.06 Additional Advance.

(1) In the case of a new note or a modification of a preexisting note, representing an additional extension of credit to be secured by a previously recorded instrument which otherwise requires no further recording, the intangible tax is determined according to the terms of the new note.

(2) In lieu of recording a new or amended security instrument, the holder of the note may elect alternatively to execute an affidavit setting forth the amount of the additional advance, in words and figures, and the correct date on which the additional advance falls due, and the page and book of the previously recorded instrument.

(3) The collecting officer of the county where the tax was first paid shall collect the intangible recording tax due and shall enter upon or attach to the affidavit the certificate that the intangible recording tax has been paid, the date, and the amount of the tax, and such affidavit shall be recorded and attached to the previously recorded instrument.

560-11-8-.07 Multi-State Property.

(1) Resident holder: If the holder of an instrument conveying property located both within and without the State of Georgia to secure a long-term note, is a resident of Georgia, the amount of the tax required is that amount that would be due were the property located wholly within the State of Georgia. The maximum amount of Georgia intangible recording tax payable with respect to the instrument is $ 25,000.

(2) Nonresident holder: A nonresident, if a business entity, for the purposes of this regulation is defined as any business entity that is incorporated or organized under law other than the law of Georgia and maintains its principal place of business in a state other than Georgia.

(a) If the holder of an instrument conveying property located both within and without the State of Georgia is a nonresident of Georgia, the amount of tax due would be $ 1.50 per $ 500.00 or fraction thereof of the principal of the note, times (x) the ratio of the value of real property located in Georgia to the value of all real property, in-state and out-of-state, securing the note.
(b) All values must be certified under oath by the holder presenting the instrument for recording. The application of the $25,000 cap is made after the above referenced computation is completed. An example follows:

| $100,000,000 | Total Loan Amount |
| 10% | % of FMV of Real Property located within Ga. |
| 90% | % of FMV of Real Property located outside Ga. |
| $300,000 | Tax on Loan Amount (\($100,000,000 \times .003\)) |
| 30,000 | Tax on 10% of Loan Amount (Ga. portion) |
| 25,000 | Tax (after application of the cap) |

(3) Resident and nonresident holders: Where a single security instrument secures long-term notes held by both residents and nonresidents and the long-term notes held by the residents and the nonresidents are clearly identifiable from the security instrument, the nonresident holders will be allowed to apportion their tax paid based on the apportionment formula described in subsection (2)(b).

(a) Resident holders in the same transaction, however, will be required to pay the intangible recording tax as if the property were located wholly within the State of Georgia on that portion of indebtedness represented by the long-term notes they hold. The maximum amount of Georgia intangible recording tax payable with respect to the indebtedness is $25,000.

(b) If the notes held by residents and nonresidents cannot be distinguished from the face of the security instrument, no holder, resident or nonresident, will be allowed to apportion their tax paid based on the apportionment formula described in subsection (b).

560-11-8-.08 Multi-County Property.

(1) With respect to any instrument given as security for a long-term note wherein the real property is located in more than one county, the intangible recording tax shall be paid to each county in which the instrument is recorded. The value of the real property located in each county must be certified under oath by the holder of the note presenting the instrument for recording.

(2) The collecting officer in each county shall certify that the proper intangible recording tax has been paid along with any penalties assessed on the instrument.

(3) If the holder desires to record the instrument simultaneously in more than one county, the holder should submit a counterpart of the instrument for recording in each individual county. The counterpart should contain the appropriate description of the property that is encumbered in the subject county along with an affidavit that sets forth the value of the real property encumbered in every county being secured by the instrument.

560-11-8-.09 Wrap-around Note.

Intangible recording tax is due on the entire face amount of a security instrument securing a "wrap-around" note which is otherwise a long-term note secured by real estate. This type of transaction is not a modification by extension, transfer, assignment, or renewal as defined in Revenue Rule 560-11-8-.04 above and does not fall within the provisions of Revenue Rule 560-11-8-.04 since there is a new lender.

560-11-8-.10 Interest Included in Note-Add On.

If a deed to secure debt reflects an amount secured, that is greater than the principal amount of the note, and the description of the note contained in the security instrument does not clearly indicate what part of the face amount of the note is principal and what part represents other charges, the holder may at the time of recording, present a sworn affidavit itemizing the principal amount of the note and the other charges. The collecting officer shall then use the principal amount from the sworn affidavit in determining the proper tax liability.

560-11-8-.11 Adjustable Rate Mortgages ("ARM").

Where an instrument secures a long-term note which contemplates the extension of credit based upon an adjustable interest rate, the intangible tax due is computed as follows:
(a) Where the instrument contemplates negative amortization, the intangible tax is based upon the total amount of the credit contemplated within the instrument, if determinable. In some cases, this will be reflected as a percentage of the initial principal balance and in some cases it will be a fixed dollar amount.
(b) If the instrument does not contain a ceiling, or negative amortization may occur based on some future rate index, then the total credit contemplated cannot be determined. The intangible recording tax is then due on the initial principal balance as shown on the face of the instrument, and if negative amortization occurs, the holder of the instrument must execute and submit an affidavit as provided for in Revenue Rule 560-11-8-.05 concerning the intangible recording tax computation on additional advances and pay the intangible recording tax on the additional credit extended.

560-11-8-.12 Instrument Securing Short-Term and Long-Term Notes.

Where a single instrument secures both long-term and short-term notes, intangible recording tax is due on the sum of the amounts of both the long-term and short-term notes, up to the maximum tax allowed per instrument.

560-11-8-.13 Secured Lines of Credit.

(1) Intangible recording tax is due and payable by the note holder, upon the recording of an instrument securing a long-term revolving line of credit secured by real estate, a long-term line of credit secured by real estate or long-term equity line of credit secured by real estate on the total amount of the line of credit, whether advanced or not.

(2) The determination of whether the revolving line of credit, secured line of credit, or equity line of credit is long-term is made at the time of recording from the face of the instrument. If the term of the revolving line of credit, secured line of credit, or the equity line of credit will extend beyond a three year period, notwithstanding when advances will be advanced or repaid, the revolving line of credit, the secured line of credit, or equity line of credit, will be deemed long-term.

(3) The $25,000 maximum intangible tax limit provided for in O.C.G.A. Section 48-6-61 shall apply with respect to the total amount of credit contemplated by the line of credit. No additional tax will be due on subsequent advances secured by the instrument as long as the principal outstanding at any one time does not exceed the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding as determined from the face of the instrument.

560-11-8-.14 Exemptions.

Any mortgage, deed to secure debt, purchase money deed to secure debt, bond for title or any other form of security instrument is not subject to intangible recording tax where any of the following applies:

(a) Where any of the following is a party: The United States, the State of Georgia, any agency, board, commission, department or political subdivision of either the United States or this state, any public authority, any non-profit public corporation, or any other publicly held entity sponsored by the government of the United States or this state.
